Sub. No. 8 REMINDER - SUDDEN DEATH TREATMENT

Force Orders No. 3605, Part I, Sub. No. 1 dated 2016-07-07, is hereby republished for general information.

Force Order Orders Nos. 3584, 3585, 3586, 3587, 3588, 3589, 3594, 3595 and 3596 dated 2016-02-11, 2016-02-18, 2016-02-26, 2016-03-03, 2016-03-10, 2016-03-17, 2016-04-21, 2016-04-28 and 2016-05-05, respectively is hereby republished with amendments to 'Sudden Death where the deceased had a known medical condition', for general information and strict compliance.

There continues to be confusion among our officers in matters to do with sudden death and when to call the contracted funeral home and request a post mortem from the Forensic Laboratory. After several meetings with the Ministry of National Security, the following have been agreed and are hereby promulgated for compliance in all instances.

SITUATION		REQUIRED ACTION
1.	Suspicious death	This is a legal/ medical case; Police must call the contracted funeral home and request a post mortem from the Forensic Laboratory.
2.	Sudden death where the deceased had no known medical condition	This is a legal/ medical case; Police must call the contracted funeral home and request a post mortem from the Forensic Laboratory.
3.	Sudden death where the deceased had a known medical condition.	This is not necessarily a legal/medical case although a medical autopsy may be required. 1. Where the police have ascertained that there is a doctor who is willing to sign the Medical Certificate of the Cause of Death, especially in the case of the aged, the police will note the name of the doctor for inclusion in the Station Diary as well as the Sudden Death Register, and allow the family to contact a funeral home of their choice. 2. Where it is not clear whether or not there is a doctor willing to sign the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death, the police must call the contracted funeral home. Within 48 hours the police must determine whether a doctor will sign a Medical Certificate of Cause of Death in which case the body will be released to the family to be dealt with by a funeral home of their choice. 3. If there is no doctor willing to sign a Medical Cause of Death Certificate but there is no suspicion of foul play, then the family will make arrangements for a medical autopsy to be performed. (Not by the Forensic Laboratory). 4. This must be determined within 48 hours of the death or else the contracted funeral home is at liberty to charge the family the full commercial rate. 5. If the police cause the matter to drag beyond 48 hours they will be liable for the commercial charges and strong disciplinary action will be taken.

There must be strict adherence to the procedures described above and sanctions will be levied against any officer who deviates from this directive. Additionally, with immediate effect, supervisors/senior officers must institute the requisite mechanisms to monitor and ensure that each case is to be treated in accordance with these procedures; failing which disciplinary proceedings will also be instituted as deemed necessary.

APPENDIX 'A' JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE CHILD INTERACTION POLICY & PROCEDURES TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE Child Interaction Policy and Procedures

Developed: November 2015
Revision: January 2017

I. INTRODUCTION

The Child Interaction Policy and Procedures is a manifestation of the Jamaica Constabulary Force's commitment and multiple efforts to uphold human rights; particularly to lift professional standards to meet the organization's responsibilities in supporting the best interests of children. Members of the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) have legal and ethical obligations to operate in accordance with domestic laws and international conventions, such as the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) to protect and safeguard child rights during encounters with all persons under the age of 18 years.

This document which was developed with technical support from the Caribbean Child Development Centre of the University of the West Indies, Open Campus and financial and technical support from the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), is in keeping with JCF's strategic priority: "Enhance Respect for Human Rights and Human Dignity". The process involved consultations with JCF members, State and non-governmental partners, children, parents and other stakeholders. It also represents a critical component of the holistic Child Rights Sustainability Initiative being implemented across the Constabulary which includes capacity building through rights-based training, programming and the development of an effective monitoring and evaluation system.

II. PURPOSE

The policy sets guidelines and protocols for occasions in which members interact with persons below the age of eighteen years. It aims to make every police encounter with a child a positive one, in which protective and corrective action is taken, and both sides emerge with dignity and respect.

III. POLICY OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Policy are:

- 1) To foster a child-friendly environment within the JCF where the sensitive needs and well-being of children are paramount;
- 2) To protect and safeguard the rights of all children;
- 3) To build the capacity of the JCF and its members to support the best interests of children;
- 4) To enable the JCF to protect and treat all children, including those in conflict with the law, in accordance with the Constabulary's legal and ethical obligations and in a manner whereby all parties emerge from the encounter with dignity and respect.
- 5) To strengthen collaboration with governmental and non-governmental agencies to foster inter-agency cooperation and coordination to collectively serve the best interests of every child.
- 6) To facilitate and enhance the protection of the rights of children within the justice system and eliminate any possibility of re-victimization by the police.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

IV. SCOPE

This Policy applies to all sworn and unsworn members of the JCF and covers all police interactions with children under the age of 18 years. These interactions are broken into two broad categories:

- a) Interactions with children in the justice system as:
 - i. Children in conflict with the law;
 - ii. Children deemed to be in need of care and protection;
 - iii. Children perceived by their parents/guardians as being 'uncontrollable' (presenting some level of behavioural challenges which exceed the parents'/guardians' capabilities to handle); or
 - iv. Victims and witnesses.
- b) Interactions with children as members of the community to include institutions and groups such as schools, youth clubs and other community based organizations.

V. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this policy the following adopted definitions shall apply:

- A. 'Child' means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years according to section 2 of the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004.
- B. 'Child-sensitive' means an approach which reflects awareness of the special needs of children and gives primary consideration to the child's individual needs, maturity, abilities and views.
- C. 'Evolving Capacities' refers to the unique development of each child's capability to discern and make decisions, which increases with maturity, (CRC).
- D. 'Age of Criminal Responsibility' according to section 63 of the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004, the age of criminal responsibility is twelve (12) years. This means that no child under the age of twelve (12) can be charged with of any offence.
- E. 'Child in Need of Care and Protection' means any child who satisfies the conditions in section 8 of the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004.
- F. 'Child in Conflict with the Law' means any child who comes into contact with the justice system as a result of being suspected or accused of committing an offence, (Office of the Children's Advocate (OCA) Child Justice Guidelines, 2013).

VI. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

This Policy is grounded in the general principles outlined in the Child Care and Protection Act (2004) and other relevant laws of Jamaica, the OCA Child Justice Guidelines (2013), the CRC as well as several other international agreements to which Jamaica is a party. The JCF supports these principles and implores its members to fully incorporate them in their interactions with children in all circumstances.

A. Dignity

The JCF accepts that every child is a unique and valuable human being whose individual dignity, needs, interests, and privacy should be respected and protected.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

B. Vulnerability

The JCF understands and accepts that childhood is the most vulnerable stage of human development. Therefore service delivery and treatment of children in the justice system is predicated on this understanding.

C. Best interests of the child

The JCF recognizes that every child has the right to have his/her best interests given primary consideration in the decisions that affect him/her. [See CRC General Comment No. 14 (2013)]

D. Non-discrimination

The JCF recognizes that every child, including those in conflict with the law has the right to be treated fairly and equally regardless of his/her gender, social or economic status, sexual orientation, health or religious persuasion or those of his/her parent/guardian. The JCF will guard against any act of discrimination particularly to vulnerable groups, such as street children and children who are repeat offenders (recidivists).

E. Child-sensitive

The JCF recognizes that all children should be treated in a caring and sensitive manner, taking into account at all times, their personal circumstances and immediate needs, age, gender, disability, and level of maturity and fully respecting their physical, mental, and moral integrity.

F. Deprivation of liberty – a last resort

The JCF acknowledges that children should be deprived of their liberty only as a last resort and for the minimum period necessary. If and when deprived, primacy is to be given to rehabilitation and reintegration into society at the earliest possible time.

G. Right to participation

The JCF recognizes that every child has, subject to procedural law, the right to express his/her views, opinions and beliefs in his/her own words, and to contribute to the decisions affecting his/her life and to have those views considered according to his/her abilities, age, intellectual maturity and evolving capacity.

H. Safety and well-being

The JCF shall uphold the rights and safety and promote the physical and mental well-being of all children. Its members will also ensure that any interaction with alleged child offenders be proportionate to the circumstances of both the alleged offender and the offence, and that all efforts should be corrective and not punitive.

I. Family Life

The JCF recognizes that the family setting is the preferred environment for the care, upbringing and protection of children and this responsibility rests primarily with the parents/guardians. Separation of children from parents, and by extension their siblings, should be a last resort.

J. Partnership

The JCF recognizes that the well-being of children can best be achieved through accountable-partnerships between the JCF, other government agencies, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and the citizenry. The JCF will utilize a coordinated approach at the national and community levels.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

K. Privacy and Confidentiality

The JCF recognizes and respects the importance of privacy and confidentiality as individual rights of all children. The JCF will pursue the highest standards in the appropriate use, storage, sharing and disposal of records relating to all children.

VII. POLICY STATEMENTS

- A. The JCF shall ensure that every child who is suspected or accused of having infringed the law has at least the following guarantees:
- 1) To be presumed innocent until proven guilty according to law;
 - 2) To have their parents/guardians notified immediately of their apprehension;
 - 3) To be informed promptly and directly of the charges against him /her, and, if appropriate through his/her parents/guardians;
 - 4) Access to legal representation;
 - 5) To have his/her privacy fully respected at all times
 - 6) To be taken to court promptly.
- B. The JCF shall ensure that every child benefits from the involvement of members who are specially trained and remain current on best practices relating to the rights of children.
- C. The JCF shall incorporate and sustain Child Rights and Responsibilities training as part of the Human Rights module, delivered at all levels at the National Police College of Jamaica. This includes Basic Training, Probationary, In-service, and Leadership and Management.
- D. The JCF shall ensure that any enquiries into a child's private life is limited to the minimum necessary as defined by law in order to ensure high standards of evidence and a fair and equitable outcome of the proceedings.

VIII. PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

A. Completing the Child Interaction Policy Form (CIP-1)

1. A CIP-1 Form MUST be fully and accurately completed using block capital letters each time a member interacts with persons under the age of 18 years, under the following circumstances:
 - i. Children in conflict with the law;
 - ii. Children deemed to be in need of care and protection;
 - iii. Children perceived by their parents or guardians as being 'uncontrollable';
 - iv. Victims and witnesses.
2. Completed CIP-1 forms should be forwarded to the Divisional Community Safety and Security office within 24 hours of being completed or the next working day after a weekend or public holiday.
3. Uploaded forms should be stored for validation purposes by the Divisional Community Safety and Security office.

B. Children in Conflict with the Law

Upon the arrest of a child who is in conflict with the law, the following procedures should be observed:

1. Notification

- a. The child should be told of the reason for the arrest in plain and simple language that the child indicates he/she understands. Where necessary specialized assistance should be sought for children with special needs.

- b. The child's parents or guardians should also be notified immediately (by appropriate means) of the arrest and the reason for the arrest, unless this may put the child at risk.
- c. Inform the child's parent or guardian of the child's location, the name of the responsible member of the JCF, the phone number of the location at which the child is being held, and ascertain any special needs that the child may have.
- d. The Child Development Agency (CDA), and the Office of the Children's Registry (OCR), the Detention and Courts Division and where applicable the Combined Disabilities Association must be informed as soon as a child is taken into police custody.
- e. Any subsequent transfer of the child to another location must be immediately communicated to the parent/guardian, the CDA and the Detention and Courts Division.

2. Need for Medical Attention

Child suspects having visible signs of injury or who upon being interviewed complain of illness must be taken immediately to the nearest public health facility for medical attention.

3. Right to Legal Representation

- a. The interviewing of a child suspect must be conducted in the presence of an attorney-at-law except to obtain very basic information such as the name, age and address of the child, and name and contact information of parents/guardians. A child should not be compelled to confess or acknowledge guilt.
- b. For an unrepresented child, immediate contact should be made with the OCA or a listed Duty Counsel.

4. Children in Police Custody

Children should only be placed in police custody as a last resort, and for the shortest possible time. Children in detention are presumed innocent and should be treated as such; therefore the following guidelines should be observed:

- a. Children should only be placed in police lock-ups designated for children.
- b. Where a child is detained but not charged within 24 hours, the child should be released into the care and custody of his/her parents or guardians once such release would neither jeopardize nor compromise the investigations, nor the well-being of the child.
- c. Children in police custody, who are convicted, and those who are yet to be charged with an offence should be held separately from each other and from all other categories of children.
- d. Children who have been remanded by the court and those who have been charged but are yet to face the court may be kept together.
- e. Children of opposite sexes should not be placed in the same cell under no circumstance.
- f. Under no circumstance should children and adults be kept in the same cell or be allowed to interact with each other.
- g. The police should under no circumstance make public any information that would identify or assist in identifying a child in their custody.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

- h. Children in police custody should be allowed to maintain contact with their families and as such a flexible schedule for visitation should be maintained.
- i. Restraint or force should only be used when the child poses an imminent threat of injury to himself/herself or others, and only when all other means of control have been exhausted. Restraint or force must never be used as a means of punishment.

5. Bail

When a child is charged with a criminal offence, the police should without delay, consider the question of bail.

- a. Where it is possible, the police should take the child forthwith before any Resident Magistrate (RM), whether in chambers or in open court (including Resident Magistrates who sit in civil courts).
- b. Where the child cannot be brought forthwith before a court, the police shall:
 - i. Inform the Child Development Agency (CDA);
 - ii. Enquire into the case and may, in accordance with the Bail Act, release the child on a recognizance, unless:
 - The charge is one of murder or any other Second Schedule Offences in the Bail Act, 2000; or
 - It is in the child's interest to remove him/her from association with any convict, criminal suspect or prostitute; or
 - The police have reason to believe that the child's release would defeat the ends of justice or could otherwise cause injury or danger to the child.
- c. Where a child cannot be brought forthwith before the court and cannot be released on recognizance due to the circumstances outlined in b (ii) above, the child should be taken within 24 hours of being charged or the first working day after a weekend or public holiday for the matter of bail to be determined.
- d. Until such court appearance, the child should only be held in a police lock-up designated for children.
- e. A child who is remanded in custody by the court should be transported immediately to the designated Juvenile Remand Centre specified in the commitment.
- f. The police should not wait to complete a case file before taking the child before the court if the file cannot be completed within 24 hours of the charge.

6. Transportation

- a. It is the responsibility of the police to transport children held in juvenile remand centres and police lock-ups to and from court.
- b. Children should never be transported together with adult prisoners in the same vehicle; neither should male and female children be transported together.
- c. Transportation duties should commence at an appropriate time to allow for the arrival of children at least 20 minutes before the opening of court. This is to afford them sufficient time to adjust and prepare for court appearance.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-10

7. Court Appearance

- a. A child over the age of twelve (12) who is charged jointly with an adult will have to face a regular Resident Magistrate's Court or Supreme Court, depending on the crime and the charge preferred. (See Section 72 (2) of the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004)
- b. The parent/guardian of a child who is charged with an offence or is brought before a court for any other reason should be kept informed of court dates, especially the first mention date.

8. Children Under 12 Years

- a. Given the age of criminal responsibility, children under the age of 12 years who are in conflict with the law cannot be charged with any offence and should therefore be treated as a child in need of care and protection.

C. Children in Need of Care and Protection

When dealing with situations involving children who are deemed to be in need of care and protection, the following procedures should be observed:

1. Children with visible signs of injury, or who upon being interviewed complain of illness must be taken without delay, to the nearest health facility for medical attention.
2. Where no medical attention is required, the child should be taken to an appropriately private and comfortable room at the police station to be interviewed in a child-sensitive manner.
3. Where applicable, steps should be taken to contact the child's parent/guardian with a view of furthering the investigations.
4. Where investigations reveal that the child is at risk and has to be taken into State care, contact should be made with the CDA representative for the area, who will make arrangements for the child to be received at a Place of Safety.
5. For the rural areas, outside of CDA's office hours, direct contact can be made with the nearest Place of Safety to secure such placement.
6. If there is a difficulty in securing placement at a place of safety, or through the efforts of the Detentions and Courts Division, the child should only be held at a police lock-up designated for children and should be separated from all other categories of children.
7. The child should be taken before a children's court or resident magistrate whether in open court or in chambers within 48 hours of being taken into care. The transportation of the child to and from the place of safety is the responsibility of the police.

D. Children perceived by Parents/Guardians as being 'Uncontrollable' (Presenting some level of behavioural challenges)

When a child is perceived by his/her parent or guardian to be 'uncontrollable', that is presenting some level of behavioural challenges and the matter is brought to the attention of the police, no such charge can be preferred by the police. In these instances the following steps should be adopted:

1. Conduct an assessment of the situation relative to the concerns of the parent/guardian, while encouraging the child to express his/her views, fully, freely and respectfully.
2. Offer the necessary guidance to the child and parent/guardian;

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-10

3. Make an entry of the circumstances in the Juvenile Caution Register; -
4. Refer the parent/guardian to the family court or children's court where a representative from CDA, an intake officer or a counsellor should offer the necessary support and guidance.

E. Children as Victims and Witnesses

The police must be involved in, and promote a multi-agency approach in dealing with cases where children are victims and/or witnesses. As such, the following guidelines should be observed:

1. The police should respond without delay and in a sensitive manner to all reports involving children.
2. Generally, children who are victims of sexual offences and abuse should be referred to the Centre for the Investigation of Sexual Offences and Child Abuse (CISOCA), for the necessary investigations and appropriate referrals. However, in keeping with Force Orders No. 3562 Sub No. 2, dated 10/09/2015, uniformed police personnel must conduct investigations for the listed offences and where applicable make the necessary referrals.
3. Parents/guardians of child victim/witness should be notified immediately and be kept informed about the developments in the case.
4. Statements from children should be recorded without delay except where a written professional or expert opinion (medical or psychological) recommends otherwise. All statements must be recorded in the presence of a parent/guardian, or legal representative, except where it is alleged or suspected that the parent is the offender or may be complicit.
5. Where practicable, during the investigative process, investigators should avoid repetition of interviews or asking children to repeat factual details of complaints so as to prevent re-victimization of the child.
6. The police should not make public any information that would tend to identify a child as a victim or as a witness without the permission of the court. (See Section 44 of the Child Care and Protection Act, 2004).

F. Policing in Schools

It may become necessary at times for investigations and/or other law enforcement activities to be carried out in schools. However, with the exception of emergency circumstances, the police should seek to execute their duties in collaboration with the school administrators.

1. Entry into school

- a. In schools which are involved in the 'Safe School Programme', the School Resource Officers (SRO's) should be the first point of contact for investigators.
- b. Where there are no SROs, police personnel should be aware of the potential disruption of the educational process that their presence may cause, and should consider the necessity of such action based on:
 - i. The immediacy to conduct the investigation, arrest or search.
 - ii. The potential danger to persons;
 - iii. The likelihood of destruction of evidence or other property.

2. Student interview

- a. When questioning student witnesses or victims, the police should have a school administrator or senior representative present.

APPENDIX 'A' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

- b. When the questioned student is a suspect, a parent or guardian must be present during any interviews or questioning. The parent/guardian and student must both be advised of the student's rights.

3. Taking a student into custody

- a. The police should make reasonable efforts to avoid making arrests or taking students into custody whilst on the school premises.
- b. The police should not remove a student from school premises unless he/she is under arrest or with the consent of the student or his/her parent/ guardian.

APPENDIX 'E' MEDICAL ARTICLE - DEALING WITH LOSS OF RELATIVE/CO-WORKER/FRIEND TO FORCE ORDERS 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

Hypertension- "A Silent Killer"

Case

A fifty-five (55) years old policeman, Carl, presents to the Medical Services Branch, reporting symptoms of light-headedness, giddiness and headache since the last three (3) days. He is obese and is a heavy drinker. His blood pressure measured by the nurse is 190/100. He explains that he always has high blood pressure readings and is not a fan of medications. Due to his dislike for medications, he does not take his prescribed blood pressure tablets.

What is Hypertension?

Hypertension is a medical condition characterized by persistently elevated blood pressure above the normal range 120/80. Blood pressure refers to the force exerted by the flowing blood, on the walls of the blood vessels in the body. The pressure exerted on the vessel walls has two components a systolic and diastolic pressure.

What do the top number and bottom number in a blood pressure measurement of 140/90 mean?

The top number is called the SYSTOLIC blood pressure. This is the pressure in the blood vessels when the heart contracts (systole) and pumps the blood throughout the body. The systolic pressure is more than the diastolic pressure. In this example the systolic pressure is 140.

What does the bottom number in a blood pressure measurement of 140/90 mean?

The bottom number is called the DIASTOLIC blood pressure. This is the pressure in the blood vessels when the heart is in a relaxed state (diastole) and is not contracting. The diastolic pressure is less than the systolic pressure. In this case the diastolic pressure is 90.

How is Hypertension diagnosed?

Hypertension is diagnosed by checking blood pressure on at least two separate days and confirming that the blood pressure readings are greater than or equal to 140/90 for patients less than 60 yrs. For patients 60 and over, the diagnosis is made with blood pressure readings greater than or equal to 150/90.

What are the risk factors for developing hypertension?

Risk factors include smoking, heavy alcohol use, sedentary lifestyle, and obesity a family history of hypertension, kidney disease and hormonal diseases.

What are the symptoms of Hypertension?

Hypertension is called the "silent killer" because it usually does not cause any symptoms even though the high pressures in the body are damaging the organs. Some patients may report feeling dizzy, lightheaded, headaches, neck pain, neck tension. Sometimes hypertension may only be discovered, when a patient develops a heart attack or stroke.

APPENDIX 'E' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS 3710 DATED 2018-07-12

What are the effects of uncontrolled hypertension?

Hypertension affects the heart, brain, eyes and kidneys commonly. It leads to heart attack, stroke, blindness, kidney failure and poor circulation.

How can Hypertension be controlled?

Controlling blood pressure requires lifestyle changes and regular medical monitoring.

Diet- It requires lowering salt intake and increasing consumption of vegetables, fruits and fibre.

Exercise- 30 minutes of exercise for at least 5 days per week helps to control blood pressure.

Medications- Persons should try to be compliant on their medications.

Smoking and Alcohol- Limit heavy alcohol consumption and avoid smoking.

How is Hypertension monitored?

Regular health checkups every 1-6 months depending on level of control.

Electrocardiogram (ECG) at least once per year to monitor for damage to the heart.

Blood tests at least 1-2 times per year to monitor organ function and to rule out possible side effects of medication.

Eye specialist examination at least once per year to monitor eyes.

Regular monitoring with a nutritionist.

What should be done if you notice a bad effect from the medication?

Discontinue use of medication temporarily and contact your health-care provider for medical advice. Just stopping medications alone leaves one at risk for some of the complications of uncontrolled hypertension.

Case continued

Carl's blood pressure repeated one hour later, after he is given some medications to lower his blood pressure. He notices some improvement of his symptoms. He is educated on the effects of Hypertension, and the importance of taking his medication. He is sent to do an ECG and some blood tests to be reviewed in one week. He is referred to an Eye specialist and an appointment for a Nutritionist consultation was made. He is referred to the Psychologist for support with alcohol and smoking reduction plans and stress management. On review two months later Carl's blood pressure is on target at 138/85 and he is steadily losing weight. He has purchased a blood pressure machine and has learned how to check and monitor his blood pressure at home. He is enthusiastic about his progress, and is sharing his knowledge with his colleagues and family. He is empowered both mentally and physically.

For further information on Hypertension, or to have your blood pressure monitored using a multidisciplinary approach, feel free to contact the Medical Services Branch at 749-0470 or Ext: 69103/69107.
