Sub. No. 4 REMINDER - THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE ORGANIZATION, (INTERPOL) RED NOTICE FOR WANTED PERSONS

Force Orders No. 3745 Part I, Sub. No. 1 dated 2019-03-14 is hereby republished for general information.

The International Criminal Police Organization, (INTERPOL) is the largest International Criminal Police Organization with 194 member countries of which Jamaica has been a member since 21st August 1963. The office of INTERPOL in Jamaica otherwise referred to as National Central Bureau (NCB) Kingston is located at 12 Ocean Boulevard, Kingston Mall.

Most times when Jamaicans are classified as being wanted as per our Wanted Person Policy, they use various means to leave Jamaica undetected and go to other countries. When law enforcement officials from these other countries encounter our wanted persons they check the INTERPOL database using facial recognition and bio data to determine the status of that person. Irrespective of the result they get, contact is made with National Central Bureau (NCB) Kingston for checks to be made locally.

INTERPOL Notices are a high profile tool of international Police cooperation. One of INTERPOL's most important functions is to help Police in its member countries share critical crime related information using the organisation's system of international notices. The information concerns individuals wanted for serious crimes, missing persons, unidentified bodies, possible threats and criminal's modus operandi.

REMINDER - THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE ORGANIZATION, (INTERPOL)
RED NOTICE FOR WANTED PERSONS (CONT'D)

The Red Notice on which we will focus is used to seek the provisional arrest of a wanted person with a view to extradition based on an arrest warrant or court decision.

The Jamaica Constabulary Force has benefitted tremendously in recent years from the use of INTERPOL Red Notices. Several wanted Jamaicans have been arrested abroad and locally through the use of these notices and brought to book.

It is recommended that once a case file is completed to include an arrest warrant and steps taken locally to locate the accused has proven futile, that the services of INTERPOL Kingston be sought to assist in locating such persons.

No Red Notice will be issued without a case file being available. All available information to include the following should be provided by the investigating officer:

- Name
- Aliases
- Date of Birth
- Address
- Offence for which Subject is Wanted
- Identification Information (Voters ID, Passport, Driver's License)
- Photograph of Subject
- Summary of the incident to include role of Subject
- Copy of Warrant of Arrest
- Investigating Officer's Contact Details

The above information can be emailed to the INTERPOL Office at ncbkingston@jcf.gov.jm and for clarity they can be contacted at 1876-922-4989.

Attached to these Force Orders 3744 as Appendix 'A' is an INTERPOL Purple Notice on a current criminal modus operandi for general information.
