Sub. No. 7      REMINDER - MANDATORY USE OF ACCIDENT REPORT BOOKLETS (ARB) FOR TRAFFIC ACCIDENT INVESTIGATIONS

Force Orders No. 3883, Part I, Sub. No. 3 dated 2021-11-04, is hereby republished for general information.

It has been gleaned from recent audits that Accident Report Booklets (ARB) are not being used consistently to record data when traffic accidents are reported to the Police. Instead, personnel are using a document commonly called the 'minor accident form' to record traffic accident data. This practice is adversely affecting accident investigations. It is to be noted that all the information captured in the ARB is required for all accidents, whether the accident is fatal, serious, minor or damage only.

When the 'minor accident form' is used to record data regarding an accident, critical pieces of data are not captured, to include, data on the state of persons at the time of the accident (wearing of seatbelt, protective helmet, etc., the environment, sketches, types of junctions, weather condition, etc.) and other data surrounding vehicles (whether tinted, LHD/RHD, etc.). The practice prevents an investigator from examining all the evidence to properly investigate accidents and also reflects poorly on the Jamaica Constabulary Force whenever there are complaints/challenges regarding its inability to provide investigative updates and reports to the public and other stakeholders.

The Jamaica Constabulary Force has a responsibility to ensure that all traffic accidents are thoroughly and properly investigated, and this can only be done where comprehensive and accurate data is gathered in a standardized manner.

With immediate effect, the ARB must be used to record data relative to all traffic accidents.

Commanding Officers are to ensure that this directive is a subject at all briefings and lectures for the next four (4) weeks.
