SERIAL NO. 3640

Sub. No. 1 PUBLIC PASSENGER VEHICLE (PPV) TINTING GUIDELINES

Attached to these Orders as Appendix 'A' is a copy of the Public Passenger Vehicle (PPV) Tinting Guidelines from Mr. Cecil Morgan, JP, Managing Director, Transport Authority, 119 Maxfield Avenue, Kingston, for general information.

Commanding Officers must ensure that the provisions of this sub-head are brought to the attention of members under their command by way of lectures for the next six (6) weeks.

Sub. No. 2 REMINDER- REVISED OFFICIAL FUNERAL POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR SWORN AND RETIRED MEMBERS OF THE JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE (JCF) AND ITS AUXILIARY

Force Orders No. 3566, Part I, Sub. No. 8 dated 2015-10-08, is hereby republished for general information.

I. INTRODUCTION

The Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) deems it its duty to ascribe the appropriate respects to members who die whilst serving as well as to eligible members who have separated from the Force, as a sign of respect for dignified and selfless service to the organization and the country.

Consequently, where appropriate, the JCF will accord one of the following to eligible deceased members or deceased past members:

- a) an Official Funeral with Full Police Honours;
- b) an Official Funeral with Police Honours (Category 1);
- c) an Official Funeral with Police Honours (Category 2); and
- d) Police Support to the family of the deceased.

The decision as to whether the JCF will take responsibility for the funeral service rests with the family of the deceased and this must be established from the outset.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish the appropriate protocols and procedures to be adopted in paying last respects to eligible deceased members of the JCF, as well as deceased past members.

III. SCOPE

This policy is applicable to sworn and unsworn members of the JCF and its auxiliary.

IV. DEFINITIONS

A. Official Funeral:

An official funeral is one that is arranged and executed by the JCF.

B. Full Police Honours:

The honours and ceremonies at an official funeral will include:

- a) Coffin draped in the Jamaican Flag;
- b) Police Hearse;
- c) Uniformed Pall Bearers;
- d) Medal Bearer (if the individual was so accorded);
- e) Vigil Party;
- f) Honour Guard;

F. Honorable Discharge:

Honorable Discharge is where a member separates from the organization in good standing.

G. Uniformed Mourners

Uniformed Mourners refer to members of the Force attending any official funeral while wearing police uniform or giving Police Support whether detailed for such occasion or acting on their own initiative.

V. POLICY STATEMENT

- A. The JCF will honour the memory and service of sworn members who die in the line of duty (i.e. death in any circumstance directly attributed to the nature of the profession), Commissioner of Police and past Commissioners of Police, through the provision of an official funeral ceremony with Full Police Honours.
- B. The JCF will honour the memory and service of sworn members who die whilst serving (accidents and natural causes); retired members of the Commissioning ranks; Force Chaplains and former Force Chaplains through the provision of an official funeral ceremony with Police Honours (Category 1).
- C. The JCF will honour the memory and service of past sworn members who were honorably discharged having served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years and continued to maintain a good reputation, as well as Assistant Chaplains, through the provision of an official funeral ceremony and with Police Honours (Category 2).
- D. The JCF will honour the memory and service of other deceased sworn members who were honorably discharged and whose reputation remained in good standing and those of active unsworn members through the provision of Police Support.
- E. No Official Funeral or Police Support will be accorded where the manner of death is a direct result of misconduct or a criminal act.
- F. No Official Funeral or Police Support will be accorded in cases where murder or any crime preceded an act of suicide.
- G. No Official Funeral or Police Support will be accorded to any past member who has committed suicide.
- H. The JCF may provide Police Support to the family of members who have committed suicide only in the most exceptional cases. Where Police Support is contemplated, consideration must be given having regard to the quality and level of contribution of the member to the organization as well as the circumstance of death.

- I. Where any dispute arise about the eligibility of any deceased member or former member to be accorded a particular type of funeral, the Commissioner of Police reserves the right to make the final decision.

VI. PROCEDURES

A. Organizing and Planning the Funeral

1. Where it is established that the JCF is responsible for the funeral service, the following steps must be taken in order to facilitate the smooth flow of the service:
 - a. the service will be contained within a two-hour time frame;
 - b. prompt commencement of the service;
 - c. participants be properly guided as to the nature, content and time allotted for respective contributions;
 - d. tributes should not be longer than three (3) minutes;
 - e. members of the police force offering tributes should be appropriately dressed, representing the professionalism of the organization; and
 - f. the final draft of the programme for the funeral service must be vetted by the Chaplain or the local Assistant Chaplain on behalf of the Commissioner of Police or his designate.
2. The under-mentioned persons are responsible to ensure that police funerals reflect solemnity, dignity, precision and detailed planning:
 - a. Area and Commanding Officers;
 - b. Force Chaplain and Assistant Force Chaplains;
 - c. Community Safety and Security Branch personnel;
 - d. JCF Staff Officer;
 - e. Next-of-kin or close family members of deceased;
 - f. Pastor of church at which service will be held; and
 - g. Pastor of deceased person.

B. Role of the Force Chaplain and Assistant Force Chaplains

The Force Chaplain and Assistant Force Chaplains are responsible for the planning and management of official funeral services for deceased members. In addition, they are the chief liaison between the Force and the family members of the deceased. Some key roles of the chaplains are outlined below:

Official notification of the death to the family of the deceased must be immediately executed in person by local Assistant Chaplains, whether or not the family had prior knowledge of the death.

1. Support for the Family

Support should be given to family members and relatives of the deceased by chaplains during their time of loss. The chaplains should:

- a. consult with the family of the deceased;
- b. accompany family members to the location that the member died if required;
- c. set appointment to begin grief counselling (NOT to be done on the day of death of their loved one/s);
- d. collect information related to the circumstance of the death;
- e. meet and plan the funeral with the family;
- f. accompany family members to the morgue;
- g. provide a brief for the preparation of the Commissioner's tribute; and
- h. address any issue(s) that potentially negatively impact the dignity of the life and contribution of the deceased member, family or next-of-kin or organization.

2. Advice and Welfare

The Community Safety and Security Branch (CSSB), the local Assistant Force Chaplain and the Commanding Officer should be equipped with a list of all sources from which the family of the deceased member can access funding. These include insurance, Police Federation and Welfare Funds, MNS, NIS amongst others.

3. Church Preparation

It is the responsibility of the Commanding Officer for the host division (where the deceased will be churched) assisted by the Assistant Force Chaplain and the local CSSB to see to the preparations at the church, seating arrangement and other pertinent logistic.

4. Burial Site Visit

It is the responsibility of the Assistant Force Chaplain for the host division (where the deceased will be buried) to visit the proposed burial site with family members and determine its appropriateness (in terms of type of landscape, access, etc.) having regard to the activities that attend the type of ceremony.

C. Role of the Commanding Officer

It shall be the responsibility of the Commanding Officer for the Division in which the deceased member served at the time of death or, in case of a past member, the Division in which he/she resided at the time of death to:

1. contact the Chief Drill Instructor (CDI) at the National Police College of Jamaica (NPCJ) to provide the necessary training and support for personnel in the division who have various roles in the funeral service;
2. work closely with the local Assistant Force Chaplain to coordinate all activities as per Operation Order; and

3. ensure the Operation Order is prepared and circulated in advance of the funeral date and make available adequate personnel to perform all official duties.

D. Dress Code (Uniform members)

1. Officers and Inspectors detailed to attend funeral services should be dressed in #2 Terylene with black arm band on the left arm.
2. The Force Chaplain and/or Assistant Force Chaplains will wear uniform.
3. Members taking part as Guard of Honour, Bearer Party, Ushers, Escorts, Buglers and Vigil Party should be dressed in white tunic (the second button must be black).
4. Other rank and file members must wear working dress.
5. Medal ribbons should also be worn.

E. Applying for Police Support

1. The next-of-kin of members and of past deceased members may apply for Police Support through the Commanding Officer of the division where the deceased resided at the time of death at least two (2) weeks prior to the date of the funeral.
2. The Commanding Officer will carry out the necessary background checks to ensure that the deceased member satisfies the eligibility criteria.
3. The Commanding Officer will make the necessary recommendation to the Area Officer, who may give approval accordingly and cause the necessary support to be coordinated through the relevant formations.
4. In cases of refusal, a written notice should be given to the family of the deceased within forty-eight hours, stating the reason(s).

F. Death Benefits

1. There are several sources from which funding can be accessed for funeral purposes. It is important that family members of the deceased are assisted by the CSSB in accessing these funds, as part of the welfare support offered by the organization.
2. The Ministry of Finance and Planning will disburse different grants to assist with the burial of members who die in service. The amount of funds allocated is usually dependent on whether the member dies on or off duty.
3. The Staff Associations within the Force, as well as the National Insurance Scheme (NIS) will disburse funds to assist in funerals of members, providing they were active contributors prior to their death.

N.B. Attached to Force Orders No. 3564, Part 1, Sub. No. 1 dated 2015-09-24 as Appendix 'A' is a list of death benefits, for general information.

This Orders supersedes previous directives published in Force Orders No. 3277, Part 1 Sub No.1, dated 2010-03-25, and Force Orders No.3438, Part 1 Sub No.4 dated 2013-04-25 which speaks to Standard Operating Procedures for the conducting of official funerals.

Commanding Officers must ensure that the provisions of this sub-head are brought to the attention of members under their command by way of lectures for the next six (6) weeks.

Sub. No. 3 REMINDER - SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCE

Force Orders No. 3638, Part I, Sub. No. 7 dated 2017-02-23, is hereby republished for general information.

Members of the Jamaica Constabulary Force and Rural Police are hereby reminded that Subsistence Allowance is available to be paid to all public officers who travel in excess of 18 km from their place of work for a period of six (6) hours and are not provided with meals. Staff Orders 11.7 provides details on eligibility, calculation and re-imbursement of expenses.

The Subsistence Allowance is calculated on the basis of the 24-hour day and will be pro-rated for the number of hours of absence. Public Officers who overnight, will be eligible for a full day's allowance irrespective of the number of hours of absence.

Members who travel on official duties which exceed 24 hours, the calculations will be 1/24th of the daily rate for each complete hour. The dispatch and return diary entries which cover a period exceeding 24 hours will suffice when completing the Subsistence Allowance forms.

Commanding Officers and supervisors must ensure measures are taken to prevent abuse, hence Force Orders No. 3546 Part I, Sub. No. 6 dated 2015-05-21, on the matter must be observed.

Sub. No. 4 REMINDER - DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES/INFORMATION FOR PROMULGATION IN FORCE ORDERS

Force Orders No. 3451 Part I Sub. No. 7 dated 2013-07-25, is hereby republished for general information.

In order to facilitate the proper vetting of articles/information submitted to Administration Branch for promulgation in Force Orders, it is desirable that the deadline of 4:00 pm. on Wednesdays, be observed by Officers and other interested persons.

It is also imperative that information submitted for promulgation in Force Orders be reviewed by Portfolio/Branch/ Area Officers/Managers to ensure correctness of the information to be disseminated and compatibility with Force Policies.

The full co-operation of all concerned will greatly reduce the extended hours the staff at the Establishment Section, Personnel Division, have to work to prepare the Force Orders.

Sub. No. 5 REMINDER - OPERATIONAL POLICING PLANS - 2017/2018

Force Orders No. 3639, Part I, Sub. No. 1 dated 2017-03-02, is hereby republished for general information.

All Geographic and Non-Geographic Divisions/Formations are required to develop for submission, Operational Plans for Fiscal Year 2017/2018 (i.e., April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018).

It is imperative that the process of Stakeholder Consultation as well as the Environmental Scan (Situational Analysis) be used to guide the development of the plans for the coming year.

Plans must include:

1. Table of Contents
2. Overview of Division/Formation (Profile, Strength, etc.)
3. Crime Analysis
4. Situational, SWOT and Stakeholder Analyses

APPENDICES

APPENDIX 'A' PUBLIC PASSENGER VEHICLE (PPV) TINTING GUIDELINES TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 3640 DATED 2017-03-09

Tinting Guidelines effective February 13, 2017

All PPV should have a 70% inward view where tinting is allowed.

A 30% grade tint is allowed on PPV windows that are authorized to have tints.

Cars

No tinting of windscreen (front or back) however, a six (6) inch visor is allowed at the top of the front windscreen.

No tint on the driver or front passenger windows.

Coaster Buses

No tint on back glass and immediate back passenger seat windows.

No tint on Driver and front passenger windows.

No tint on exit door (conductor's door).

No Tint on front windscreen except for a 9 inch visor at top

15 Seater buses

Same as Coaster buses except that a 6 inch visor is allowed at the top of the front windscreen.

Contract Carriage

Contract Carriage Vehicles are exempted from the tinting guidelines.

JUTC - Will be included at a later date.

Vehicles with Manufacturer's Tint

A timeframe of twelve (12) months will be given for PPV with manufacturer tints to enable owners to either replace with a clear glass or remove that particular vehicle from public transportation.

Failure to Comply

The Police will apply a penalty of $2,500 to operators in breach of the guidelines and the unauthorized tint will be removed. Failure to comply with the removal of the tint by the Police will result in removal of registration plates by Island Traffic Authority (ITA) personnel.
