SERIAL NO. 4021

Sub. No. 1 THE COMMISSIONER'S CORNER

Greetings distinguished Colleagues,

Before I go into the subject matter on which we will be conversing, I want to take a moment to discuss a rather troubling matter that seeks to question our assurances to the people we serve. It is about the issuing of traffic tickets to persons using electronic devices, particularly cellular phones while driving. This clause in the relatively new Road Traffic Act (RTA) is necessary in helping to curb the number of collisions caused by driver distraction. When a new piece of legislation is enacted, or an amendment to an old piece of legislation is made, we must always be guided by the problem that this clause was intended to address. In this case, the problem being addressed is that of persons using the cell phones to text, dial and talk with the device in hand while driving; as well as being distracted by reading a message or watching a video while driving.

When seeking to ticket a motorist for this offence, please make sure that a breach as outlined in the act has been committed and the problem that the section of the legislation intends to solve, has occurred. Do not issue tickets to motorists for merely having their cellular phones in their laps, on the car seat, in a console, in a pocket of their clothing, or anywhere else other than in hand, while driving. It has also come to my attention that some members are ticketing persons for using their cellular phones while sitting in parked vehicles, or vehicles that have clearly pulled off the roadway. Colleagues, you are to desist from this practice with immediate effect. It does us no good, nor does it help in solving the initial problem that the section of the RTA intends to solve.

With that said, now let's get going with today's chat. It will be around the area of our stores and the management of our inventory items. This represents a critical part of our logistics support system. As you are aware, we are among the largest police organisation in the Northern Hemisphere and certainly among other non-law-enforcement organisations. With almost 14,000 sworn members, getting the necessary goods and services to each person requires a robust and effective logistics system. It requires the efficient management of our resources and assets. We need to be able to determine what is needed, the budget for what is needed, when it is needed, how it gets to those who need it and how it is utilized and disposed of. Goods and services range from stationery to fixed assets such as real estate and vehicles. In subsequent discussions, we will delve a little deeper into our logistics development agenda. Today, we will constrain our discussion to inventory items, such as stationery and uniforms.

One of the first orders of business when the Force Development and Logistics Portfolio was established was to streamline our Establishment Stores and our Headquarters Stores. Previously, both entities existed as separate entities under separate Portfolios. This separation was based solely on the type of inventory items that each managed. So, our Establishment Stores managed the inventory of stationery, while the HQ Stores managed other inventory items, including uniforms and accouterments. This was obviously not in line with the concept of 'Form Follows Function'. We immediately embarked on a project to consolidate both entities under the new Stores Headquarters, under the Services Branch of the Force Development and Logistics Portfolio. This made for a far more efficient arrangement and use of resources.

The budget for stationery and uniforms and accouterments each year is in excess of a billion dollars, with several thousand of individual items and hundreds of types of items. Our responsibilities demand that the use and disposal of each of these several items must be accounted for. That is, our historic data must be able to show who were the recipients of what items. There must be accountability for each uniform issued and each ream of paper used. It means therefore that our system of accountability must extend beyond the Stores Headquarters to individual Divisions' and Formations' Stores.

THE COMMISSIONER'S CORNER (CONT'D)

And so, the process involves requisitions made of the Stores HQ, by Divisions, for items. These items are then stored by and distributed from the Divisions' Stores to the members who require them. Each transaction, from the requisition of bulk supply, to the distribution of individual items, must form a record in our system. It means that these records must be captured at the points of issuance and must include the details of the persons to whom they were issued. This is a critical responsibility for those who manage and supervise our various stores across the organisation. I am sure that by now you would have seen the awesomeness of such responsibility. It requires the necessary skillsets and focus to ensure the system's credibility and efficiency. An effective logistics support system requires it.

As such and in continuation of the overall enhancement of the processes entailed in getting goods and services to our members, persons who are assigned as stores managers will now fall under the administrative management of the Stores HQ. The idea is to provide Divisional management teams with a turn-key capability to manage these valuable inventories, while having Stores HQ being able to ensure the requisite training is delivered, the system of accounting is implemented and effective, the operating procedures are followed and the policies adhered to. In addition, we will commence the implementation of our Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) software system that will among other things, help to manage inventory, assets and finance. We will discuss the ERP further in subsequent chats.

Colleagues, there is so much going on in our great organisation that is cementing our position as truly a 'force for good'. This is what we do. So let us continue our journey by embracing the overwhelming support of the wider Jamaica and not be daunted by the very few who seem to be uncomfortable with an effective police force. It is indeed a good day to be a member of the Jamaica Constabulary Force.

I wish for you and your families a wonderful and peaceful weekend. Until next week, walk good.

Sub. No. 2

FILLING OF VACANCIES AT THE RANKS OF SERGEANT AND CORPORAL

Due to the larger than usual intake of constables over the last three financial years, a staffing deficit has occurred resulting in a pervasiveness of supervisory roles being performed by persons of a lower rank. This is being addressed by promoting these de facto actors, where they are recommended by their Commanding Officer.

Note however that upon cessation of this approach, promotion to supervisory ranks will be by three (3) pathways:

1. Successful completion of a developmental programme;
2. Immediate promotion by the Commissioner of Police in exceptional or extraordinary situations, limited to 20% of vacancy;
3. The traditional approach, which is being modified to only admit into the Selection Process, persons that demonstrate the requisite knowledge of the job, evidenced by -
 - Successful completion of designated courses at the NPCJ, or
 - Successful completion of designated self-paced courses, or
 - Successful participation in an examination.

Regardless of the approach, conduct, productivity and quality of work will be heavily factored.

A revised selection Procedure for Promotion is forthcoming.

Sub. No. 3 THE PROSECUTION OF MOTORISTS FOR THE USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES WHILE DRIVING

The High Command of the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) has noted the recent concerns raised by members of the public regarding the issuance of traffic tickets for the use of electronic devices while driving. While road safety and minimizing driver distractions are major underpinnings of the Road Traffic Act (2018), there is a comparable need for clarity and fairness in the enforcement of this law.

Since February 1, 2023, the JCF, through the commissioning of the Act, has been empowered to issue traffic tickets to individuals using cellular phones and other electronic devices while driving.

However, several complaints have been received from motorists about instances where they have been ticketed under circumstances that do not constitute a violation of the law. These include:

1. Having their phone in their lap but not in use.
2. Having their cell phone in their shirt pocket.
3. Having their cell phone on their passenger seat or in the middle compartment.
4. Having their phones between their thighs.
5. Pulling to the left of the road in an area allowed for parking and using the cell phone.
6. Pulling to the left of the road, switching off the engine and making a call.
7. Pulling to the left of the road without impeding traffic and making a call.
8. Having a phone or device mounted on the dashboard without obstructing the driver's view, for the purpose of navigation.

In response to these concerns, members of the Force are to ensure that traffic tickets are issued only in situations that align with the provisions of the Road Traffic Act (2018), sections 121 - 122 treating on the use of electronic devices.

Specifically, members are to prosecute for use of electronic device (cellular phone) only:

1. When the device is being used in the hand(s) of the driver.
2. Where the electronic device is not in the hand of the driver but on any other part of the person's body (lap/thigh/leg), prosecution is only to be made where the person is seen engaging the device through dialling a number, constructing a text message, watching a video, surfing the net, etc).
3. Where a driver has the device in his/her pocket, and removes it from his/her pocket whilst the vehicle is in motion.
4. Where a driver is seen in a live traffic lane/line, whether at a stop light or otherwise using a device.
5. Where a driver is seen with a cell phone or other device mounted within his view in the vehicle not for navigation but showing live images, etc.

Members are reminded that the misapplication of the law may expose them to possible civil action by the affected motorist and the internal disciplinary process.

Commanding Officers are to ensure that this sub-head forms the subject of lectures and briefings for all members over the next six (6) weeks.

APPENDIX 'B' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 4021 DATED 2024-06-27

1.0 Introduction

The Jamaica Constabulary Force is the main law enforcement entity within the country and as such, we are entrusted to maintain law and order, protect life and property, prevent and detect crime and preserve the peace. Two of the main ways in which we do this is through patrolling and responding to emergencies.

Police patrols serve a variety of purposes, all with the underlying objective of keeping a particular area or space safe and crime-free. Patrol activity may include but is not limited to monitoring suspicious or unusual activity and responding to calls for assistance or investigation.

Effective patrol operations can yield significant results in policing; these include, but are not limited to:

- a. suppression and prevention of crime;
- b. criminal identification;
- c. response to emergencies and major incidents/disasters;
- d. enhanced public safety and security; and
- e. good community relations.

Against this background, this policy and standard operating procedures has been designed to provide clear and actionable guidelines for all members of the JCF and its auxiliaries while providing twenty- four (24) hours patrol and responding to emergency calls for services.

2.0 Purpose

The purpose of this policy and standard operating procedure is to streamline the administration, organization and operations of the patrol functions of the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) and it's auxiliary. It also provides a guide for patrol procedures, emergency responses and calls for service.

3.0 Scope

This policy and standard operating procedure applies to all sworn and unsworn members of the JCF and its auxiliaries.

- 5.1 Patrol - shall mean any activity, to include motor vehicle, motorcycle, boat, bicycle, mounted troop and foot, which aims to prevent criminal activities, investigate and arrest offenders and provide general calls for service in a particular zone or area.
- 5.2 Priority One Call - this is a call of extreme emergency when a police vehicle is engaged in pursuit circumstances or is responding to a high priority call or a sudden state of danger requiring immediate police action.
- 5.3 Priority Two Call - this is classified as urgent, a situation which is not life threatening or dangerous as in a priority one call, but has the immediate potential of extreme danger unless contained by the availability of on-scene personnel;
- 5.4 Priority Three Call - this is a routine call following normal request procedures which does not have the character of immediate danger.
- 5.5 Rural Areas - a geographic region located outside of cities and towns, characterized by low population density, limited access to urban amenities. These areas often have scenic landscapes, farmland, and small settlements. Rural areas include parts of the countryside, hills, and mountains, where agriculture, farming, and small-scale fishing are common livelihoods

- 5.6 Township – any area that has a combination of economic activity, multiple means of transportation, commercial or industrial activities, local government services and are responsible for providing basic services to the local community

8.0 Standard Operating Procedures

The following outlines the procedure for the management of Patrol and Emergency Response:

8.1 Briefing and Debriefing of Patrols

In the event of an emergency this will help to identify the problem area with a minimum of words so that immediate response is possible.

8.2.3 Marked units shall have clear signs of identification, e.g. SO 12, PTE 126 etcetera, which will be utilized in all police radio transmissions. Where marked Service vehicles are used for patrolling, the vehicle must be equipped as follows:

APPENDIX 'B' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 4021 DATED 2024-06-27

8.4 Police Emergency Communication Centre Response

The 119 emergency Computer Aided Design (CAD) system is the immediate link between citizens and the police in times of emergency or distress and is available twenty-four (24) hours per day. It facilitates basic law enforcement services so that members of the public may be able to contact the police at any time and receive responses to emergency situations.

8.4.1 All calls for emergency received at the PECC must be dealt with immediately by giving directions to relevant patrols and stations and the appropriate entries and updates recorded in the CAD log database.

8.4.2 Where the nature of a police response requires more than one patrol to be assigned, a supervisor should be assigned. Such decision is to be made on the actual or potential presence of one or more of the following factors:

- a) violent assault on personnel;
- b) serious accidents;
- c) resistance to arrests;
- d) use of force whether by police personnel or otherwise;
- e) serious crime in progress or committed;
- f) a fleeing felon or suspect;
- g) a disaster situation;
- h) demonstration including illegal roadblocks; and
- i) any situation that threatens to escalate into public disorder.

8.4.3 Foot patrols shall be deployed for the purpose of close contact with citizens as well as strategy co-ordination with patrols. Before this is done, a survey should be conducted to establish the need for such patrols. The following factors should be included:

- a) the need for frequent security inspections in business and commercial areas;
- b) a high concentration of calls for services involving pedestrians or other persons on the street;
- c) a high concentration of reported offences in a defined area where patrols have not been very effective; and
- d) the nature of activities in the area taking into consideration security of personnel.

8.4.4 Patrols should be deployed in areas to combine mobility with close citizen contact. In these respects, mounted troop, motorcycle patrols, bicycle or other patrols can be employed effectively under the following conditions:

- a) The existence of several separate locations, each of which could logically be patrolled on foot but would be too small to classify as a mobile patrol area;
- b) The need for the patrol of parks or other terrain considered not suited for vehicular patrol;
- c) Requirements for parking enforcement, control of loitering, or fast response time in crowded areas where a larger patrol would be slowed down; and
- d) When personnel are involved in specialized areas and whenever they are not actually engaged in such duties, they shall be utilized for normal patrol duties.

8.5 Priority Response

All calls for services are categorized as follows:

8.5.1 Priority One Call

This is a response to a life-threatening situation or serious crime-in-progress such as burglary, bomb threat, kidnapping, police personnel in distress situations, prowler calls, fire:

- a) senior or specialized staff, such as area, divisional or other senior officer, bomb squad or hostage negotiators responding to a major incident which requires their immediate attention;
- b) an emergency police escort of VIPs and critically injured persons; and

- c) a pursuit, where an emergency equipped police vehicle is used in attempting to apprehend the occupant(s) of another motor vehicle, whose driver refuses to comply with police directions to stop and attempts to flee.

8.5.2 Priority Two Call

Urgent but not considered life threatening or as dangerous as a priority one call but has the immediate potential of extreme danger unless contained by the availability of on-scene personnel.

8.5.3 Priority Three Call

This is a routine call following normal request procedures which does not have the character of immediate danger.

8.6 Emergency Patrol and Pursuit Operations

8.6.1 During an emergency, all force drivers involved shall drive with due regard for the safety of all persons. A force driver in such circumstances has a duty to be careful and is therefore not relieved from care and accordingly not protected from the consequences of his/her reckless actions. All drivers shall obey the Road Traffic Act and Regulations where these apply.

8.6.2 Force drivers shall avoid engaging in or shall terminate any emergency driving when conditions indicate that the safety of police personnel or the community is in jeopardy, or on the instructions of his/her supervisor or PECC.

8.6.3 The Force driver must constantly evaluate the risks involved in an emergency response and report at regular intervals to PECC for directions. Conditions to be considered are:

- a) reason for the emergency response by the police;
- b) traffic density and pedestrian volume;
- c) road and weather conditions;
- d) speed involved and time of day;
- e) type of area, whether business or residential;

- g) knowledge of the offender or suspect's identity or danger to the community if the suspect is not immediately apprehended.

8.6.4 Vehicles engaged in emergency operation shall utilize roof lights and siren. In cases of crimes in progress, etcetera, the siren shall be utilized up to the point where it may be heard at the scene of the crime, the lights shall be utilized until they may be visible at the scene.

8.6.5 Unmarked vehicles equipped for emergency response shall utilize the removable roof light plus the head lights. Once either the lights or siren are discontinued, emergency operation shall be terminated, and police personnel shall revert to normal road use.

8.6.6 Police vehicles not equipped with emergency equipment (blue lights and siren) shall not undertake an emergency response except under the most critical of circumstances and will advise PECC of same. If dispatched to a high priority incident (priority 1 or 2) personnel shall respond in obedience to all traffic laws.

8.6.7 Police personnel shall not engage in an emergency operation while transporting non-police persons (prisoners, witnesses, parents of children in police custody, etcetera).

8.7 Vehicle Escorts

The Force routinely receives requests to escort various types of vehicles and persons to a specific location or to expedite travel both in emergency and non-emergency situations. Escorting civilian vehicles under emergency circumstances is very dangerous and should be avoided whenever possible.

- 8.7.1 All routine or planned escorts (over-sized vehicles, dignitaries, funerals,) shall be coordinated through PECC; no member of the JCF shall initiate any emergency escorts without first obtaining specific authorization.
- 8.7.2 Police patrols may be allowed to escort vehicles in emergency circumstances if all the available means of transport to convey the injured person have been exhausted and in the opinion of the police, delay or transfer would jeopardize a person's life, the police may, with specific approval escort the civilian vehicle to the nearest emergency medical facility.
- 8.7.3 During emergency escorts, equipment (exterior mounted emergency lights/blue emergency flashing lights) on the patrol unit shall be utilized while obeying the Road Traffic Act and Regulations.

- 8.8.2 Police Emergency Control Centre Dispatcher
Upon notification of a pursuit, shall:
 - a) Clear the channel except for vehicles involved in the pursuit. All other transmissions will be sent to another channel;
 - b) Notify other police units as necessary;
 - c) conduct registration and criminal record searches as soon as possible and broadcast when time permits; and
 - d) Update CAD logs
- 8.8.3 Termination of Pursuit
Pursuit shall be terminated under any of the following conditions:
 - a) When circumstances develop which present extraordinary danger to members of the public (pursuing member's or supervisor's discretion);
 - b) In circumstances where the offender can be identified, and an arrest made at a later time without risk of creating danger to the public;
 - c) When so ordered by PECC or by the supervisor assigned to the pursuit;

JCF Standard Operating Procedures for the Management of CCTV Monitoring Centres

APPENDIX 'C' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 4021 DATED 2024-06-27

1.0 Introduction

As a critical component of the National Surveillance (Jamaica Eye) Program, the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) manages the Closed Circuit Television Monitoring Centres (hereinafter referred to as the JCF CCTV Monitoring Centre) at the Police Emergency Communications Centre (PECC) and other locations. The JCF CCTV Monitoring Centres which incorporate feeds from public and privately owned cameras play a critical role in the national surveillance infrastructure of Jamaica and provide visual coverage (an eye) of imageries across various townships. This technology is a welcome tool in advancing the capabilities of the JCF to prevent, detect and respond to incidents of crime and public disorder using real-time telemetry, multi-agency coordination and efficient resource management.

The management of CCTV Monitoring Centre is aimed at supporting 'on the ground' operations, which in turn, aid in the creation of a safer and more secured environment. Management of the centres will aid in:

- 1. increased focus on public safety and security;
- 2. prevention and detection of crimes and public disorder; and
- 3. provision of evidence for investigations.

2.0 Purpose

This document outlines the standard operating procedure for the management of all CCTV Monitoring Centres in the JCF.

3.0 Scope

This standard operating procedures applies to all sworn and unsworn members and it covers the day-to-day administration and operations of the CCTV Monitoring Centres.

4.0 Standard Operating Procedure

4.1 Command and Reporting Structure

- 4.1.1 CCTV Monitoring Centres shall fall under the command of Operations Branch;
- 4.1.2 CCTV Monitoring Centres located in geographic divisions shall fall under the direct command of Divisional Commander/Officer; and
- 4.1.3 the central reporting channel from Divisional Commander to Operations Branch shall be through the Police Emergency and Communication Centre's command.

4.2 Staffing, Recruitment and Training

- 4.2.1 Staffing for monitoring centres shall be determined by effective recruitment and screening process;
- 4.2.2 a polygraph examination or other approved method of security vetting shall be inclusive of the screening process;

JCF Standard Operating Procedures for the Management of CCTV Monitoring Centres

APPENDIX 'C' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 4021 DATED 2024-06-27

- 4.2.3 CCTV Operators and Supervisors shall receive initial and periodic training in the use of CCTV Technology; and

- 4.3.2 To enhance screen viewing concentration and optimum performance of CCTV Operators, as best as is practicable, each shift shall not exceed 8 hours
- 4.3.3 Duration of work time shall be structured and managed to facilitate optical intermission (in addition to the required one hour welfare break) for each CCTV Operator to ensure ideal levels of concentration. That is, prolonged monitor viewing should be avoided; operators should not look at CCTV monitors for extended periods without rest breaks
- 4.3.4 Access to the monitoring centres will be restricted. Persons wishing to access the monitoring centre must make a written application to the Commanding Officer in the respective division and will only be allowed access after approval has been granted to do so.
