1.0 Introduction

The Anti-Corruption and Internal Affairs Directorate (ACIAD) has the important mandate to develop and maintain integrity and professional standards within the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF). The ACIAD recognizes that not only is the issue of integrity and professional standards critical to the continued reform, modernization and professionalization of the Force, but that they are vital ingredients to the achievement of Goal #2 and National Outcome #5 of Jamaica's National Development Plan (NDP).

To this end, the ACIAD is committed to the constant effort of ensuring that all complaints are managed holistically through preventative measures, education and training, and that there is continued effort aimed at raising professional standards, promoting a culture of ethical and responsible behaviour, as well as preventing reputational harm to the organization. To execute this function, the ACIAD comprises of Complaint Investigation Unit (CIU) and the Anti-Corruption Investigations and Operations Unit (ACIO).

Complaints Investigations Unit (CIU)

The CIU is responsible for:

- receiving, interviewing, recording, investigating and monitoring of complaints against members;
- ensuring that all complaints are dealt with expeditiously, in an atmosphere of transparency with due regards for the rights of both the public and members responding to allegations of crime and misconduct against members;
- managing systems to receive complaints and to provide accurate and timely feedback;
- maintaining and monitoring a registry of all complaints against members.

Anti-Corruption Investigations and Operations (ACIO)

The ACIO is responsible for:

- investigating all cases of corruption involving members;
 - monitoring the recording and investigation of all complaints of corruption made by, or on behalf of the public against members;
 - instituting systems to facilitate a proactive approach concerning all matters of police corruption;
 - initiating and directing the investigation of all matters of corruption coming to its notice;
 - maintaining a register of all reports investigated or reported and secure all such files for reference and internal analysis;
 - assessing allegations, rumors or anonymous information pointing to corrupt behaviour involving members with a view to conducting investigation where warranted;
 - engaging in public education in relation to cases of dishonesty and corruption; and
 - ensuring that all complaints are dealt with expeditiously, in an atmosphere of

transparency with due regards for the rights of both the public and members;

2.0 Purpose

The purpose of this SOP is to outline the process for managing complaints against members of the JCF.

3.0 Scope

The scope of this SOP applies to all sworn and unsworn members of the JCF. It covers the management of complaints for all criminal and administrative breaches.

4.0 Policy Statement

It is the policy of the ACIAD that all complaints of crime and administrative breach that come to its attention will be recorded promptly and accurately, and be investigated in a thorough and transparent manner.

7.0 Standard Operating Procedure

The following outlines the procedures for the management of complaints at the ACIAD:

7.1 Receival

7.1.1 Visit to the IPROB

When a member of the public arrives at the IPROB, the police will:

7.1.1.1 greet the customer formally and politely, for example, “Good day sir, I am Constable John Black. Welcome to IPROB. How may I help you?”

7.1.1.2 conduct a preliminary interview to ascertain basic information on the purpose of the visit;

7.1.1.3 refer the customer in accordance with Section 8 of this policy, once it has been established that he or she intends to lodge a complaint; and

7.1.1.4 make an entry in the Station Diary/Station Record Management System (SRMS).

7.1.2 Written/Electronic Correspondence

Where a complaint is made via written or electronic means the following will apply:

7.1.2.1 acknowledge receipt of the complaint as soon as is practicable

7.1.2.2 refer the complaint in accordance with Section 8 of this policy.

8.0 Referral

Referrals will be made in accordance with the following:

8.1 complaints of, or relating to corruption will be directed to the ACIO Unit; and

8.2 all other complaints will be directed to the CIU.

9.0 The Initial Investigation

During this process, the initial investigator will:

9.1 record statement(s) from the complainant and witness(es) where available, issue CR-10 and construct the casefile. The casefile, where applicable, comprises the following:

- 9.1.1 statements/reports of complainant and/or witness(es)
- 9.1.2 completed CR-1, CR-2 and CR-10
- 9.1.3 Complaints Report Form (Appendix I)
- 9.1.4 statement of initial investigator
- 9.1.5 Interim Report

9.2 invite the complainant to participate in the IPROB Customer Feedback System; and

9.3 make or cause an entry to be recorded in the Complaint of the Public against the Police – Report.

N.B. Some complaints of sensitive nature or, in cases where release of information is likely to jeopardize investigation, the entry may either be redacted prior to recording, delayed or not recorded.

9.4 provide update to the complainant and submit the casefile to supervisor for vetting within seven (7) days of IPROB's receipt of the initial report.

10.0 Preliminary Vetting

Upon receipt of the casefile the supervisor will quality-check to ensure that:

- 10.1 the basic components as outlined in Section 9 of this policy are included;
- 10.2 that the investigative strategy is commensurate with the nature of the complaint and;
- 10.3 submit casefile to the CMU.

11.0 Coding and Logging

Upon receipt of the casefile at the CMU, the Registrar will:

- 11.1 vet casefile to ensure adherence to standard
- 11.2 assign or cause to be assigned a Casefile Number. The casefile number will be generated as follows: Insert the abbreviation 'CMU' followed by the 'consecutive number' of the CMU Register followed by a 'forward slash' (/), followed by the 'last two (2) digits of the calendar year' within which the complaint was received.
- 11.3 enter case into the CMIS
- 11.4 make duplicates of casefile
- 11.5 assign/reassign casefile via 3-R Rule as follows:
 - 11.5.1 Retain – matters that are of public interest, received high publicity, sensitive or involving conflict of interest (whether actual or perceived) or in cases that threaten reputational harm to the organization are to be investigated by the IPROB;

11.5.2 Refer – matters which are in the authority of the Commanding Officer to address and there is no conflict of interest, or those requiring specialist/technical expertise (e.g. CISOCA);

11.5.3 Resolve - matters that are immediately cleared, and do not require further investigation may be deemed resolved. N.B. For cases to be resolved, prior consultation with the ACP, ACIAD is required.

11.6 Distribute Retained Working Casefiles to IPROB's investigators, Referred Working Casefiles to appropriate Formations and submit Resolved Casefiles to ACP, ACIAD for Closure

11.7 provide further updates to complainant within 14 days of IPROB's receipt of the initial report.

12.0 The Investigation

Upon receipt of the Working Casefile, investigators will conduct thorough investigations in keeping with the applicable sections of the JCF Case Management Policy (JCF)/FW/PL/C&S/0001/2024). This includes but not limited to;

12.1 gathering pertinent evidentiary material;

12.2 in complex, technical, sensitive or high-profile cases, attending Case Reviews and/or Case Conferences;

12.3 where required, coordinating and collaborating with external investigative bodies;

12.4 updating casefiles and submitting original documentations to the CMU;

12.5 providing periodic updates to complainants; and

12.6 completing and submitting casefiles to supervisor for vetting.

13.0 Reassignment of Casefile

It may be necessary for casefiles to be reassigned to other investigators as a result of unavailability of investigators (separation, transfer, leave, et cetera), conflict of interest or that the case has evolved beyond the capabilities of the current investigator. In circumstances where it becomes desirable to reassign casefiles, the following apply:

13.1 the investigator or his/her supervisor will complete and submit a Case Reassignment Application Form (CRAF) Appendix II, along with the Working Casefile to the head of his/her unit;

13.2 the head of the unit will examine, approve and submit the CRAF and the Working File to the Registrar;

13.3 upon receipt of the approved CRAF and Working Casefile, the Registrar will assign a new investigator, update the records and provide further update to the complainant; and

13.4 the new investigator will perform the necessary action as per Section 12.0 of this SOP.

14.0 Monitoring & Evaluation

The IPROB will institute the following M&E framework;

(a) Retained Casefiles will be monitored and evaluated by way of:

- 14.1 vetting of the casefiles and tasking of the investigators by supervisors; and
- 14.2 Case Reviews and/or Case Conferences where applicable.

(b) Referred Casefiles will be managed in the following manner:

- 14.3 Copy of casefile accompanied with the Complaints Monitoring and Closure Form (Appendix III) is sent to the appropriate Formations for investigation and the CMIS updated.
- 14.4 Periodic contacts with Formations' Commanders to determine the status and quality of investigations and the CMIS updated.
- 14.5 Generate reports

15.0 Closure of Investigations

On completion of investigations, the casefile is submitted to ACP ACIAD, who will:

- 15.1 Review the casefile
- 15.2 Communicate results to complainants and implicated members where applicable
- 15.3 Submit casefile to:
 - 15.3.1 DPP where sufficient evidence is unearthed to establish prima facie case in criminal matters;
 - 15.3.2 Administration where sufficient evidence is unearthed to establish prima facie case in administrative matters; and
 - 15.3.3 IPROB vault where there is lack of, or insufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case.

16.0 Management of Customer Feedback

The CIU will manage customers' needs and expectations via customer feedback system in keeping with Section 9.2 of this SOP.

- 16.1 Customers will be invited to participate in the IPROB's Customer Satisfaction Survey.
- 16.2 Feedback from the survey will be collected, analyzed, and become subject of meetings/discussions with a view of improving quality of service and customer satisfaction.
