1 Introduction

One of the Strategic Priorities of the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) is “Improving Communication & Public Engagement”. It is envisaged that this can be achieved inter alia by transforming systems of communication to better understand the needs and expectations of stakeholders; strengthening stakeholder engagement thus building relationships; and increasing citizens’ voices and choices in maintaining a robust citizen safety and security ecosystem.

Stakeholder engagement is a necessity for the effective management of the Jamaica Constabulary Force. It demonstrates our commitment to the democratic process, and serves to better understand and manage the interests, needs and expectations of stakeholders. This document presents the JCF’s policy on the engagement of stakeholders, and identifies the various methods for engagement

2 Purpose

The purpose of the Jamaica Constabulary Force Stakeholder Engagement Policy is to present the JCF’s position on: i) engaging stakeholders as a means of building relationships; ii) improving communication; and iii) enhancing citizens’ safety and security.

3 Scope

This policy shall apply to all sworn and unsworn members of the JCF. It covers the management of stakeholder engagement through; meetings, exchange of correspondence, workshops, focus groups, press releases and press conferences and surveys, among others.
