1. INTRODUCTION

The National Police College of Jamaica (NPCJ) is cognizant of its role as a tertiary law enforcement training institution at the pinnacle of excellence in the region. Thus, its ability to demonstrate quality assurance practices is of great importance and is the impetus of the creation of this document.

This document describes the existing quality framework at the college and highlights the standard that is currently being established for all programmes within the institution. The objective of this document, is to strengthen the quality of all programmes developed, monitored or reviewed by the NPCJ, JCF Divisions and Formations by providing a clear guide in facilitating the standardization of all programmes so that consistency, efficiency and effectiveness are delivered.

This is a process requiring the involvement of all individuals and groups affiliated with training and adhering to the process exemplified and explained. The procedures and linkages with other NPCJ policies seek to add virtue to the high expectations that are expected from the NPCJ in maintaining: ‘A force for good’.

2. QUALITY AT NPCJ

The NPCJ Quality Control Policy establishes a framework for the effective and efficient quality management of the NPCJ’s assessment and curriculum policies, procedures and processes for quality, and within this sphere of activity, provide the highest quality of professional services to trainees, staff, and external stakeholders.

Each curriculum and course outline is created, reviewed and monitored with a focus on the essentialism philosophy and standards-based framework. The essentialism philosophy guides the methods of delivery based on essential and necessary features that constables, middle and senior managers should employ in the progressing of their policing and law enforcement duties. Whereas, the standards-based framework require that learning outcomes are befitting of the knowledge, skills, attitudes and competencies essential to effective policing and law enforcement.

3. PURPOSE OF QUALITY CONTROL

The Quality Control Mechanism Policy establishes the NPCJ’s methodology in ensuring Quality Management. It seeks to coordinate and facilitate mechanisms through which the NPCJ ensures that the delivery of training and professional development activities are at the highest quality to all stakeholders.

4. SCOPE

The Quality Control Mechanism Policy for the NPCJ is applicable to all training staff. As such, the delivery and design of programmes and courses, and the strategic execution of administrative, operational and support services are included. Additionally, the Quality Control Mechanism Policy also allows for the efficient and effective training of police personnel in executing law enforcement duties, which should ultimately respond to the needs of the Jamaican society.

5. DEFINITIONS

- a) Courses - Short Courses no less than 45 credit hours or 3 credits. Courses may stand-alone or as part of a programme.
- b) Programme - an extended or long-term series of courses or activities with a specific outcome achieving the required credit hours and levels of achievement.
- c) Subject Matter Experts – individuals who are competent in the development and delivery of content or topic (Faculty Heads/Training Officers/Syndicate Directors, Facilitators).
- d)

6. NPCJ QUALITY CONTROL STATEMENT

The NPCJ continues to be dedicated towards professional excellence, transparency and accountability, partnerships, honesty and integrity and technological advancements in law enforcement education, training and development.

In facilitating these values and goals, the NPCJ is directed by six dimensions of quality. These are: a) credibility in delivery; b) contemporary modalities and programme delivery, c) competence d) competency, e) adherence to local, regional and international standards and efficiency and effectiveness.

- a) Credibility in the delivery of programmes and courses within NPCJ that demonstrates fairness and transparency in assessments and the selection of participants and facilitators.
- b) Contemporary modalities and programmes refers to the infusion of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) software and applications that are befitting of the ever changing requirements of law enforcement.
- c) Competent facilitators who have been trained to deliver top-class law enforcement actions and activities.
- d) Competency refers to the performance of participants as a result of participating in training and professional development programmes.

- e) Adherence to local, regional and international standards that contribute to the enhancement of knowledge, skills and attitudes befitting of law enforcement officials within the JCF.
- f) Efficiency and effectiveness in managing and using resources.

7. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE QUALITY CONTROL PROCESS

The Curriculum Development and Coordination Unit, (CDCU) in collaboration with the heads of faculty and departments and heads of formations and divisions or designates hold responsibility for monitoring and reviewing the progress of courses towards new and existing strategic targets and competencies. These roles and responsibilities will be controlled as follows:

8. QUALITY MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

The NPCJ Quality Management Strategy will involve quality assurance process of creating, revising, implementing and evaluating the procedures involved in ensuring that the NPCJ delivers quality training *to its participants. Therefore, the NPCJ is very resilient in establishing targets through standardization, monitoring and evaluation and improved accountability in the trainer-trainee /facilitator-participant relationship and quality of work exhibited by all personnel.

The aim of managing the quality output of the training experience is to ensure that individuals who have been exposed to the NPCJ curricula will leave with the competencies necessary for their advancement into the dynamic and ever-changing world of policing and law enforcement. As such, quality assurance is an important feature of the NPCJ's vie in ensuring this quality is maintained and is able to withstand external scrutiny.

9. QUALITY ASSURANCE

The impact of quality assurance starts with the role of trainees and participants ensuring that they are prepared mentally, physically and emotionally to handle the varying knowledge, skills, attitudes and competencies that are expected of them, particularly in minimizing instances of plagiarism, absenteeism and inefficiency in completing tasks.

Secondly, facilitators are to ensure that the quality and methods of delivery are in keeping with the statutes lain out in internal (JCF and NPCJ) and external (JCF and other educational institutions or organizations) articulation agreements. Thus, confidentiality in handling assignments and other course/programme related documents issued by the NPCJ is imperative in maintaining continuity and longevity of these courses/programmes.

Thirdly, course related scripts and materials should be vetted by the Quality Assurance Desk of the CDCU, the Dean, Academic Studies and/or the Quality Assurance Committee (an intended sub-committee of the Academic Board)

10.STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES

11.COURSE DEVELOPMENT AND APPROVAL

11.1.1 Purpose

This process seeks to outline the procedure to be followed when Faculties within NPCJ, JCF Divisions and Formations, Ministry of National Security and external entities propose new or existing courses/programmes to be approved by the ACP Training. This process allows for integration in the processes required by HEART NSTA/Trust, NCTVET or the University Council of Jamaica as well as when certification is requested by divisions.

These procedures cover the following;

- a. New courses;
- b. Existing Courses;
- c. Accreditation of established courses.

A course is established when it will be/have been delivered for no less than forty five hours and will be/have been offered more than twice to no less than fifteen persons on each occasion. Because of this, course codes should be developed to provide credibility and exclusivity, practicability and quality:

11.1.2 Credibility and Exclusivity

- i. Courses should be innovative.
- ii. The course should fill a demonstrable need of policing.
- iii. There should be a list of clear learning outcomes, specific objectives, assessments and selection processes of participants and facilitators.

11.1.3 Practicability

- i. Department/ Faculty/Formation must indicate the utility of topics/focus areas based on research
- ii. Adequate human and physical resources must be identified for the course.
- iii. Possible overlaps in content should be investigated and identified (during review meetings) to determine its extent and deal with potential conflicts.

11.1.4 Quality

- i. Courses must match the mission and vision of the JCF and the NPCJ.
- ii. The course must adhere to the philosophy of the department/faculty/formation or division.
- iii. The course approval process must be adhered to.
- iv. A Training Needs Analysis (TNA) and Training Impact Evaluation (TIE) must be conducted at different intervals of the course development. Hence, a pilot of the course must be done to address these concerns.

11.2 COURSE CODE AND NOMENCLATURE

Course Codes at NPCJ must consist of at least ten alpha-numeric characters in the following format.

| RESPONSIBLEDEPARTMENT/FACULTY/FORMATION/DIVISION | CATEGORYOFTRAINING | SUB-CATEGORYOFTRAINING | CERTIFICATE/QUALIFICATIONLEVEL | VERSIONCONTROL |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| DWTT                                                                        | IST                                 | TA                                           | 01                                              |                            |

11.3 Responsible Department/ Faculty/ Formation/ Division

For this heading, the first one - four letters of the department/ faculty/ formation/ division/ portfolio from which the course has been developed will be used. Some samples are outlined below:

Departments

DWTT – Department of Weapons and Tactical Training

DSM – Department of Supervisory Management

DCIT – Department of Criminal Investigations

Faculty

FRPT – Faculty of Recruit and Probationer Training

FLPD – Faculty of Leadership and Professional Development

FOMST – Faculty of Operational Management and Skills Training

Formations

CCU – Constabulary Communication Unit

PERS – Personnel

ICTB – Information and Communication Technology Branch

Divisions

SAS – St. Andrew South

SCN – St. Catherine North

E – St. Mary

M – Clarendon

Portfolios

ADMP – Administration Portfolio

CRIP – Crime Portfolio

FDLP – Force Development and Logistics Portfolio

11.4 Category of Training

This refers to the general purpose of training which may include refresher courses to persons who have already been trained in a similar course or remedial assistance to those who need additional support in attaining the required competencies.

BST – Basic Training

LDT – Leadership Training

IST – In-service Training

RFT – Refresher Training

INT – Intermediate Training

RMT – Remedial Training

IPT – Internship Training

UGT – Upgrading Training

11.5 Subcategory of Training

This indicates the specific type of training. For example:

DT1 – Basic Detective; DT2 – Advanced
Detective Training

TA - Tactical

MO – Motorcycle

PA – Patrol

DR – Driving

BC1 – Basic Communications; BC2 –
Advanced Communications

11.6 Certification/Qualification Level

This heading relates to the National Qualification Framework within Jamaica and may equate to levels 1 – 8. These levels are determined based on the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be developed and taught for the course as aligned to the framework. For example:

- 01 – Level 1
- 02 – Level 2
- 03 – Level 3
- 04 – Level 4
- 05 – Level 5
- 06 – Level 6
- 07 – Level 7
- 08 – Level 8

10.7. Version Control

These digits can be from 1-99 and describe the number of versions/revisions existing for the course.

All courses/programmes are to be developed and proposed by the respective training officers in dialogue with subject matter experts and be submitted to the ACP i/c Training and are bounded by the procedures below:

11.6.1 CRITERIA FOR THE APPROVAL AND ADDITION TO THE LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS.

- a) Be in line with the learning needs of JCF personnel;
- b) Be in line with the JCF's strategic direction and priorities;
- c) Responds to core competencies of the JCF; and
- d) Are included in the approved JCF budget.

These procedures shall apply to ALL geographic and non-geographic divisions of the JCF.

11.6.2 INTRODUCTION OF NEW COURSES AND CHANGES TO EXISTING COURSES

11.6.3 New Courses

11.6.3.1 Step 1: Subject Matter Experts (Faculty Head/Training Officers/Facilitators) should manage and control within the scope of the varying academic policies and standards, the academic processes within the Faculty, Therefore, the proposal for a course should be developed based on the requirements of the course development in Step 2 below.

11.6.3.2 Step 2: The following shall accompany the application request by a faculty, department, division, formation or area for a new course/programme:

- Completed National Police College of Jamaica Proposal for Training Course Development. This Proposal should include:
  - Cover Letter/Minute detailing the division, formation or area reasons for facilitating the course
  - Course Outline (see Appendix 1) AND/OR Training Manual which includes:
    - ✓ Content for all the topics of the course
    - ✓ Description of the target participants
    - ✓ The course duration
    - ✓ Proposed timetable
    - ✓ Assessment Plan
    - ✓ Training Needs Analysis Report (see Training Needs Analysis Policy) – this may be a short description of the reasons for training based on a survey or interview with prospective participants and/or supervisors.
    - ✓ Description of the resources requested of the NPCJ to facilitate course – # of Rooms, Refreshments, ICT Equipment, etc.

11.6.3.3 Step 2: The prescribed documents should be submitted to the ACP Training/Director, NPCJ or his designate, who shall forward it to the CDCU for attention.

11.6.3.4 Step 3: The CDCU shall review the documentation against the Tertiary Qualifications Framework and the National Vocation Qualifications Framework. After which, the requesting entity will be engaged in refining the required documentation.

11.6.3.5 Step 4: After the CDCU has reviewed and/or developed the course documents, a Committee comprising the following individuals shall engage in further review and make recommendations or changes as seen fit.

- Deputy Director Training and Academic Studies or his/her designee
- Faculty Head, Training Officer, Course Coordinator and the Facilitator(s) under whose purview the course will fall
- Dean, Academic Studies

11.6.3.6 Step 5: The ACP training shall be kept abreast of the process and upon completion the Dean, Academic Studies will advise the ACP training on the suitability for approval/certification.

11.6.3.7 Step 6: At the end of the course, a report outlining the grades of participants for EACH assessment, course/training/workshop evaluation analysis and the overall strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats noted during the course should be sent.

11.6.4 Existing Courses

It is important to note that existing courses should be reviewed every two to three years, with focus on the following steps.

11.6.4.1 Step 1: The following shall accompany the application request by a faculty, department, division, formation or area for an EXISTING course/programme:

- Cover Letter/Minute detailing the division, formation or area facilitating the course
- Course Outline (see Appendix 1) AND/OR Training Manual which includes:
  - ✓ Lesson Outline (see Appendix 2)/Presentations
  - ✓ Existing timetable
  - ✓ Assessment description and methods
  - ✓ Outline of the grades received by previous participants
- Course Evaluation Data
- Course Report
- Training Impact Evaluation – An indication of the strengths and weaknesses of the previous training. This may be done during the review process, guided by Policy (see Training Impact Evaluation Policy and SOP)

11.6.4.2 Step 2: The prescribed documents should be submitted to the ACP Training/Director, NPCJ or his designate, who shall forward it to the CDCU for attention.

11.6.4.3 Step 3: The CDCU shall review and request such further documentation as needed. It might be necessary for the CDCU to work with the entity to document, design and develop deficient areas.

11.6.4.4 Step 4: The Dean, Academic Studies shall review the documentation submitted from the CDCU and make recommendations for changes to the course/programme.

11.6.4.5 Step 5: The ACP training shall be kept abreast of the process and upon completion, the Dean, Academic Studies will advise the ACP training on the course's/programme's suitability for approval.

11.6.4.6 Step 6: At the end of the course, a Post Training Report (see Appendix 3) outlining the grades of participants for EACH assessment, course/training/workshop evaluation analysis and the overall strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats noted during the course should be sent. (For existing courses, this will form part of the Training Impact Evaluation process.)

12. STANDARDS – TEACHING AND LEARNING

Facilitators are to ensure that the quality and methods of delivery are in keeping with the statutes laid out in internal (JCF and NPCJ) and external (JCF and other educational institutions or organizations) articulation agreements.

Thus, confidentiality in handling assignments and other course/programme related documents issued by the NPCJ is imperative in maintaining continuity and longevity of these courses/programmes.

WORKSHOP DEVELOPMENT

Workshops can span anywhere between 1 day and two weeks. The major differences between workshops and courses at the NPCJ are their purposes. Workshops are deemed as activities which allow for the generation of ideas, plans, analysis or design that supports employees and the JCF. They offer classes or series of classes for a small group of people to develop methods and skills to do something. Whereas, courses seek to offer facilitation to develop skills, knowledge and abilities in a trainee, supervisor, managers and commanders within the JCF.

On this note, workshops are supposed to entail the following items for submission.

12.1.1 Planning and Preparation

1. Provide the Workshop Plan (see Appendix 3) that entails the following:

- Identification of the topics to be discussed in the workshop
  - Decide on the areas to be covered during the workshop and the objectives for each area
- Names of facilitators and coordinators to host the workshop
  - Make a list of the facilitators and the sessions they will facilitate
  - Provide a list of the prospective divisions, formations and areas targeted
- Schedule of the workshop

- Set the time and date for the workshop and provide a timetable
- Schedule and plan for workshop activities (see Appendix 3)
  - Make a list of the activities and methods to be used in the workshops
- List and obtain the resources needed for the workshop
  - Provide a list of the tools – virtual tools, stationery and texts; equipment – projectors, computers, desk, chairs, podiums, microphones, etc.

12.1.2 Analysing and Developing Reports of Workshops

At the end of a course and workshop it is very important to analyse the data collected. This data should be written in prose and in some cases tabular form, addressing the elements below:

Overview of the Workshop

- Description of the participants, duration, and objectives.

Discussion and Analysis

- Evaluate whether or not the objectives were achieved. Explain, briefly, the reasons for the achievement or lack thereof.
- Describe the strengths, weaknesses identified in the instruction, administration, workshop outline, virtual experience and facilitators.
- Analysis of Assessment, if any. Attach the filled out template (see Assessment Policy).

Recommendations

- Outline your recommendations for any possible changes.

12.1.3 Analyzing and Developing Reports of Courses

Overview of the Course

- Provide a short description of the Duration, Target Audience, Structure, Rationale, Aim and a List of the Modules/Unit

- Provide a description of the participants (number, rank, top performer), activities done during the lessons, course evaluation findings and exit interview findings (if an online survey Form is used, submit printed results).
- Include the Analysis of Assessment.

Discussion and Analysis

- Evaluate whether or not the learning outcomes were achieved. Explain the reasons for the achievement or lack thereof.
- Describe the strengths, weaknesses identified in instruction, course administration, course structure/outline, virtual experience and instructors. Mention the budget constraints during the course, if any.

Recommendations

- Outline your recommendations for any possible changes to the course.
- Provide a list of the additional, resources or information needed for future courses.

12.2 ASSESSMENT AT NPCJ

The Assessment Policy of the NPCJ is recognized as the quality assurance protocols in existence to ensure quality outputs. The policy focuses on a wide array of information pertaining to the following elements. (A more in-depth explanation and protocols can be found in Quality Assessment Policy.)

13. STUDENT SUPPORT SYSTEMS

13.1.1 Feedback to Participants/Students

- Feedback can be provided in a variety of ways, including:
  - ✓ model answers to questions
  - ✓ verbal comments to individuals and/or a class
  - ✓ comments via email and/or online forums, to individuals and/or a class

- ✓ comments on presentations and participation in class discussions
- ✓ preliminary discussion about an assessment task
- ✓ written feedback on drafts of an assessment task
- ✓ via the NPCJ's electronic Learning Management System

13.1.2 Re-sits

- As a general rule, a participant who fails to achieve the minimum pass mark established for an assignment or module will have one attempt to re-sit for training programmes.
- However, each re-sit for academic programmes – Associate Degree in Criminal Justice should be at a cost to be determined by the 'Academic Board'
- The participant must obtain the minimum passing grade or higher in the re-sit but will only be awarded the passing grade.

13.2 PROGRAMME/COURSE REPORT STRUCTURE

A course report is a structured document that provides a cumulative record of:

- a) Brief Summary of the Course
- b) The Achievement of Learning Outcomes
- c) Analysis of Participant Attendance
- d) Participant Progress and Evaluation
- e) Analysis of Participant Assessments
- f) Course Evaluation/Exit Interviews Analysis
- g) Analysis of External Examiners' Findings (This is applicable to the Academic Programmes)
- h) Overall Strengths and Weaknesses of the Course Delivery Process

13.3 RECORD UPKEEP– COLLECTION, STORAGE AND RETENTION

Records are to be collected before, during and after a course or session is taught. Therefore, all trainers/facilitators should be mentally prepared to gather records for their participants.

13.3.1 Types of Records

1. Attendance Records
2. Timetables

3. Course Outlines
4. Analysis of Assessment
5. Teachers' Log Books
6. Course Reports – Conduct and Academic – All misconduct and academic deficiencies are to be recorded
7. Transcripts

Records are to be prepared, packaged, distributed and stored with extreme confidentiality. Records pertaining to an individual's personal and identifiable data should abide by the Data Protection Act, 2020. The Act also maintains that permission should be sought by the data subject (owner of personal data) before being transferred to third parties.

13.3.2 Tips for Collecting, Storing and Retention

- Avoid Subjectivity – provide factual, consistent and accurate information
- Avoid Lags in Records – provide records that are consistently updated; as soon as an important incident, event or activity occurs
- Avoid Mistakes – ensure that correct names, dates, setting, etc are taken for efficient record keeping.

14.LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY/GUIDING PRINCIPLES

14.1. This Policy shall be read in conjunction with the Jamaica's Copyright Act 1993; Jamaica Copyright Amendment Act 2015; the JCF Training Policy, Quality Assessment Policy, NPCJ Student Handbook, NPCJ Student Code of Conduct, and programme and course outlines.

15.EDUCATIONAL INITIATIVES

15.1. The NPCJ will provide educational initiatives to promote quality and prevent unsustainability of course and programme delivery. These initiatives may include workshops, seminars, online resources, and assessment tutorials.

16.REVIEW AND REVISION

16.1. The NPCJ is committed to maintaining the highest standards of assessment. This Course and Programme Delivery Policy and Standard Operating Procedures will be reviewed biannually to ensure its effectiveness and relevance. Any necessary revisions will be made in consultation with relevant stakeholders, including students, faculty, staff, academic/advisory boards, and certification and accreditation bodies.

20.APPENDIX 4: POST TRAINING REPORT

For this report, it is important that the following headings be used as a guide, and the information provided is reinforced by evidence – Analysis of Assessment, Participant Grades, Training Evaluation Survey, etc.

Executive Summary

Briefly state the key points of the training in no more than a paragraph. This summary should: state the aim or purpose of the report, highlight the major points of the report, and outline any results, conclusions, or recommendations from the report.

Programme Overview

Course Description

- Describe the layout of the course (# number of Modules, delivery method – face to face or virtual, duration, # of participants)

Learning Outcomes/General Objectives

- Copy and paste those in course outline.

Methodology

- Briefly state the methods of assessment and the components of the Training Evaluation Survey (the survey should have participants provide feedback on the facilitators and overall course delivery and administration. Samples of the survey should be attached to the Post Training Report).

Findings

Provide an Analysis of Assessment (see below) and provide a broad description of the key findings from the Training Evaluation Survey.

Conclusion

Answer the following questions: Were all the Learning Outcomes met? What were the strengths and weaknesses of the training (participants, course administration and delivery, physical space)?

Recommendations

Provide suggestions as to how the course coordinators or any responsible authority plan to rectify the weaknesses of the training in the future.
