7.2 PROCEDURES FOR STORING INSTITUTION FUNDS PRIOR TO CHECK-OFF (VAULT)

7.2.1 Recording of Funds:

7.2.1.1 All monies (cash and cheques) are recorded in the Appropriation Fund (Cash and Cheque) Miscellaneous Vault Register before being handed over. This ensures accurate tracking and accountability of all collected funds.

7.2.2 Handover Timing:

7.2.2.1 Funds must be handed over to the Financial Accountant or his/her designate between 4 PM and 5 PM daily. This designated time allows for proper verification and secure storage.

7.2.3 Responsibilities of Collecting Officers:

7.2.3.1 Each Collecting Officer is responsible for recording every cash and cheque collected on their tour of duty.

7.2.3.2 This record must be made daily in the Vault Register.

7.2.3.3 Each Collecting Officer must personally enter the details, ensuring accountability and accuracy.

7.2.4 Verification by the Financial Accountant:

7.2.4.1 Once the funds are handed over, the Financial Accountant (or any designated staff acting in that capacity) must immediately verify the amount. This verification is done by checking each sum against the applicable entries in the Vault Register.

7.2.5 Temporary Storage by the Financial Accountant:

7.2.5.1 After verification, the Financial Accountant secures the funds in a cash box in his/her office. The cash box is kept in a secured storage area until the funds are handed over to the Director of Finance (DOF).

7.2.6 Hand over to the Director of Finance (DOF):

7.2.6.1 At the end of the day, the Financial Accountant or his/her designate must deliver all funds collected, along with the Vault Register, to the Director of Finance (DOF).

7.2.6.2 Before handing over the funds, the Financial Accountant must sign the "Funds Handed Over Custodian" section of the Vault Register. This step ensures transparency and accountability in the handling of funds

7.2.6.3 Once the funds are received, the DOF conducts a final verification to confirm all amounts match the records.

7.2.7 Securing the Funds in the Vault:

7.2.7.1 After verification, the DOF places the funds into the vault for safekeeping.

7.2.7.2 The vault is secured with a combination lock to prevent unauthorized access.

7.2.8 Access Control:

7.2.8.1 Access to the vault is strictly limited to the DOF to maintain security and prevent unauthorized handling of funds.

7.2.8.2 This restricted access ensures the highest level of financial control and accountability

7.3 PROCEDURES FOR THE PREPARATION OF LODGEMENT

NPCJ does not have financial independence to date, all goods and services are funded by/through the JCF Finance Administration Branch. All cash and cheques collected at NPCJ's Finance Office as miscellaneous revenue must be remitted to JCF's Finance Administration Branch at NCB North Tower, 2 Oxford Road, Kingston 5.

7.3.1 Preparation of Remittance Cover Letters

7.3.1.1 Accounting Staff prepare remittance cover letters for each category of miscellaneous revenue, including:

- 7.3.1.1.1 Meal ticket sales
- 7.3.1.1.2 Tuition fees
- 7.3.1.1.3 Application fees
- 7.3.1.1.4 Photocopying services

7.3.2.1 On the day of remittance, the funds are sorted and organized before conveyance into Kingston.

- 7.3.2.1.1 A preliminary check is conducted to ascertain the exact sum to be transferred from the vault and verify that all cash/cheques in the vault match the total recorded in the Vault Register.

7.3.3 Recording in Remittance Fund Transfer Register & Vault Register

7.3.3.1 The total sum to be transferred is entered into the Remittance Fund Transfer Register.

7.3.3.2 The Vault Register is updated to reflect the amount removed for remittance.

7.3.4 Full vs. Partial Transfers

7.3.4.1 Full Transfer: In some cases, the entire vault amount will be transferred and remitted in one trip.

7.3.4.2 Partial Transfer: In specific circumstances, funds may be deferred to the next scheduled remittance trip.

7.3.4.3 If funds are deferred, the remaining balance in the Vault Register must match the physical cash/cheques on hand.

7.3.4.4 Any discrepancies between the register and actual cash must be investigated and resolved.

7.3.5 Final Verification Before Departure

7.3.5.1 Before the bearer (e.g., custodian) departs with the money:

7.3.5.2 An entry must be made in the Vault Register, recording the sum removed for transfer and the remaining balance (if any) after funds are removed.

7.3.6 A final due diligence check must be carried out by the custodian and transfer team to ensure the new balance in the Vault Register matches the net physical cash/cheques on hand.
