1.0 Introduction

The Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) has placed increased emphasis on ‘Improving Communication & Public Engagement’ through among other things, transformation of systems and processes geared to: i) better understanding the needs and expectations of stakeholders; ii) strengthening stakeholder engagement thus building relationships; and iii) increasing citizens’ voices and choices in maintaining a robust citizen safety and security ecosystem.

An effective and popular method of engagement is through the conduct of workshops. A workshop is a meeting at which a group of people engage in an intensive discussion and activities geared towards learning about a particular project or subject. This document provides a summary guide for the conduct of workshops in the JCF.

2.0 Guidelines

The following guidelines are published for reference when conducting workshops in the JCF:

3.0 Facilitator

3.1 Each workshop must have a facilitator;

3.1.1 Responsibilities of the Workshop facilitator

- i. The facilitator of the workshop will assess the needs of the workshop including the deliverables to be achieved and the necessary people needed to assist in the realization of same and make an effort to have them present.
- ii. The facilitator will prepare an agenda for the workshop to guide its management. In preparing for the workshop, the facilitator will:
- iii. Check for resources needed
- iv. Ensure the necessary resources needed are sourced and/or procured
- v. Invite the various stakeholders, including guests
- vi. Send notice of the date, time and place of the workshop

4.0 At the Workshop

- 4.1 Complete a check-in that is, finding out the participants mood towards the workshop;
- 4.2 Ensure everyone present is aware of the rules that govern the workshop;
- 4.3 Share the agenda for the workshop and set expectations;
- 4.4 The facilitator should try to lead the discussion without taking part in it;
- 4.5 Allow groups to document their findings. This will allow for a more accurate documentation of the days event;
- 4.6 Assess goal completion;
- 4.7 Complete check-out; and
- 4.8 Communicate the next steps.

5.0 After the workshop

- 5.1 The facilitator will share the overall goal and communicate to the participants their role in moving closer to achieving same.
- 5.2 Ask for feedback and communicate your gratitude for their participation
- 5.3 Conduct a follow-up workshop if, time and resources allow.
