The Jamaica Constabulary Force is committed to allowing staff to reach their fullest potential and ensuring that equal opportunity for development and promotion is made available to all.

1. Introduction

The 2019 Selection Procedure for Promotion Policy is the 4th Edition of a written policy to govern the selection and promotion of personnel in the JCF. The first, second and third editions were published in 1997, 2004 and 2009 respectively. This Edition seeks to improve the scope of the third edition with particular emphasis on objectivity, integrity, transparency and fairness of the selection process to ensure that it not only selects the best candidates for promotion, but also encourages members to continue to strive for excellence. The review process therefore, will be ongoing to help build and sustain a culture of learning and achievement which will be adapted and demonstrated into actual service delivery.

The regulations herein contained specify the selection procedure for promotion to the following ranks:

- a. Corporal
- b. Sergeant
- c. Inspector
- d. Deputy Superintendent (DSP)
- e. Superintendent (SP)
- f. Senior Superintendent (SSP)

The Selection Procedure for Promotions to the abovementioned ranks will be held bi-annually, subject to vacancies and will commence in July of each exam year. It will consist of:

- a. Preliminary screening (Disciplinary Records)
- b. Performance Appraisal
- c. Written examination (except SSP Qualifying)
- d. Assessment Centre including Panel Interviews (except Corporal Qualifying)
- e. Integrity screening

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish procedures for use by the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) in determining eligibility and selection of members for promotion. The policy establishes criteria and procedures for promotion to the ranks of Corporal, Sergeant, Inspector, Deputy Superintendent, Superintendent and Senior Superintendent.

The key objectives are:

- a. To select candidates on the basis of merit for advancement to the higher ranks.
- b. To ensure that every candidate will be assessed fairly and objectively against clear professional standards.
- c. To select and advance competent persons to the supervisory and middle management positions, in order to maintain an effective and professional workforce.

8.1 Guidelines For Eligibility-Corporal, Sergeant And Inspector Qualifying

Years of Service

Participation in the selection procedure for promotion will be as under:

Corporal Qualifying

The Corporal Qualifying examination is open to:

- ☐ Constables with no fewer than four years service at the closing of the Examination Register
- ☐ Constables with an accredited degree may sit the examination upon completing their probationary training.

Regulation Governing the Selection Procedure for Promotion to the Rank Of Corporal

The procedure for selecting Constables for promotion to the rank of Corporal has three (3) stages, namely:

- Stage 1: Written papers
- Stage 2: Performance Assessment
- Stage 3: Integrity screening

Stage 1 – Written Papers

The Structure of the paper will be as under:

Laws, Police Procedures and Formal Organisational Understanding

Description/Purpose of Paper

Paper 1

This paper will be comprised of multiple-choice questions drawn from all areas of the syllabus.

Paper 2

This paper will be comprised of questions that will require both short and extended written responses about matters that are covered in the syllabus.

Qualifying Mark

Paper 1: Candidates are required to obtain a minimum of 60% on the MCQ paper to obtain a passing grade. ONLY those members who are successful in the multiple-choice examination will move on to sit paper 2.

Paper 2: Candidates are required to obtain a minimum of 60% to achieve the qualifying mark.

Notification of Marks

The names of candidates who achieve the qualifying mark will be published in Force Orders. The Secretariat will notify candidates in writing of the actual marks obtained, through their commanders and under confidential cover.

Submission of Results

Upon receipt of the results from the Chief Examiner, the Registrar will prepare a list of those candidates who have achieved the qualifying mark and submit to the Board for ratification and submission to the Commissioner.

Stage 2 - Performance Assessment

Performance Appraisal Forms are to be completed for all eligible Constables by December 31 of the year preceding the date of the selection procedure. The Performance Appraisal must be accompanied by a report on the appraisee’s productivity, sick record, discipline, community involvement and data on cases detected. This Appraisal must include a recommendation by each member’s commanding officer as to whether or not the member is ready for promotion.

The Performance Assessment of the candidates who achieved the qualifying mark (60%) will be reviewed, and if there are recommendations from the candidates’ Commanding Officer that they are ready for promotion, the candidates’ names will be placed on a final list which will be submitted to the Commissioner.

The total points scored by the candidate will be converted to a percentage mark
