SERIAL NO. 4025

Sub. No. 1 THE COMMISSIONER'S CORNER

Greetings Distinguished Colleagues,

It is Tuesday July 23, 2024 and as I begin to write this week's conversational piece, I am reflecting on the very tragic incident that occurred on the grounds of the Half-Way-Tree Police Station yesterday, which led to the death of our beloved colleague, Detective Sergeant Kevin Mayne. Oh, what a heart-rending incident it was. The pain and sorrow that accompanies such sudden and tragic loss cannot be expressed in words. I wish to take this opportunity to offer my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences to his family and friends and also to Mr. Donovan Graham and the Area 4 team, to include Mr. Marlon Nesbeth and the entire Staff at the St. Andrew Central Division. Colleagues, let us honour his memory by being strong and supportive to his bereaved loved ones.

This week's conversation is a bittersweet one. Unfortunately, Detective Sergeant Mayne is not here to celebrate with his Commanding Officer, Mr. Marlon Nesbeth, Assistant Commissioner of Police and the other nine newly promoted Assistant Commissioners, namely: Ms. Jacqueline Coombs, Ms. Charmine Shand, Mrs. Jacqueline Green-Scafe and Messers Desmond Brooks, Glenford Miller, Howard Chambers, Kirk Ricketts, Merrick Watson and Dr. Anthony McLaughlin. Colleagues, please join me in offering our heartfelt congratulations to these well-deserving Officers. I want to express my gratitude to each and every one of them for holding posts that were higher than their ranks, without flinching. What these worthy Assistant Commissioners of Police have demonstrated is true leadership and the assurance that our noble organisation has a bright future.

Today's Force Orders may be historic, as it is possibly the first time in recent history that we have seen ten Senior Superintendents being promoted to Assistant Commissioners in the same publication. Another first, is to have three women being among this distinguished group and even more profound, is the fact that it is the first time we are blessed with four members of the Commissioned rank who are females. It is indeed a good day to be a member of the Jamaica Constabulary Force.

While we celebrate the persons who have been promoted, let me also use this opportunity to recognize the Senior Superintendents who participated in the process and have not been promoted at this time. I was heartened by the feedback of the Police Service Commission on your performance during the interview. You were an impressive group. It certainly was not a walk in the park for the members who were ultimately successful, as it was highly competitive. I urge you to keep the focus and continue to serve with distinction and with the highest level of professionalism.

While I am elated about these promotions, I must point out that we should never find ourselves here again. We must never allow these very important posts to remain unfilled for such long periods, that we have so many persons operating at levels above their ranks. Our system of promotion with respect to Senior Officers, must ensure that persons are promoted into these posts as soon as they become available. While our Officers are very mature and highly professional in executing their duties when acting in higher posts, it makes a huge difference when someone is an Assistant Commissioner of Police, as opposed to acting as an Assistant Commissioner of Police. As such, the High Command has committed to deliberately engaging a succession plan for these senior posts, which will involve the identification of a number of suitable candidates at least three months before the posts become available and the commencement of the selection procedure for each available post. While we understand that there are sometimes obstacles that may arise that may necessitate a delay in filling the posts, we will endeavor to stick to the plan as best as we can.

I am aware that a number of you have sat the examinations for the Accelerated Promotion and the Internal Graduate Development Programmes. I wish you all the best as you vie for the limited spaces available. For those who may not make it this time, please do not lose hope and do not view this as a reason to lose faith. I leave you with a quote from Winston Churchill, "Success is stumbling from failure to failure with no loss of enthusiasm".

Colleagues, I wish for you and your families a wonderful and peaceful weekend. Take care of yourself and your loved ones.
