Sub. No. 1 THE COMMISSIONER'S CORNER

Greetings distinguished Colleagues,

Earlier this week we had the annual Diaspora Conference, held at the Conference Centre in Montego Bay. I had the pleasure of participating in a session deemed "Riverside Chat", where I was interviewed by Ms. Dahlia Harris about the transformation of our great institution. As you would have expected, I seized the opportunity to dispel the false narratives about who we are, by enlightening the audience of the significant strides that we have made, and are making, in transforming and modernizing the Jamaica Constabulary Force. There was also a plenary session on security with a panel consisting of members from the Ministry of National Security, a representative of the Delaware State University and Mr. Fitz Bailey, Deputy Commissioner of Police. The discourse was quite enlightening to the audience. Their attention was drawn to the consistent reduction in major crimes over the last couple of years and the current reduction in murders. They were assured that there will be an even greater reduction in murders by the end of the year. That was a major display of confidence in the ability and commitment of each and every one of us. A confidence that I too share wholeheartedly and one that we best not betray. The significant investment in technology infrastructure within the Jamaica Constabulary Force was also shared.

It was a great conference and the largest we have had since its inception. There were well over a thousand registered attendees. On behalf of the wider Jamaica Constabulary Force, I would like to commend the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade for promoting, organizing and executing such a magnificent event. I also want to say thank you for having the Jamaica Constabulary Force participate in these conferences each year.

In addition to the Diaspora Conference, I also want to have a brief chat with you about the matter of overtime and our Workforce Management System (WMS). This has unfortunately been the subject of controversy, sometimes caused by deliberate attempts of some persons to sow discord among us. Attempts have been made to use this very important issue to drive a wedge between the Rank and File and the Officer Corp. Just the ridiculousness of the idea that the High Command is against persons being paid overtime is baffling. Let me be absolutely clear, this High Command is in total support of members being duly compensated for work done. The very nature of the job you do demands that. However, we must also be very careful in ensuring that the integrity of the system is not compromised. In other words, you must be paid for the work that you have done, but you must not claim for payments for work that you have not done. Colleagues, please bear in mind that there is almost a guarantee of an external audit, given the newness of the system and the size of the monthly payouts. Also, it is to be noted that records of claims and their approvals, are likely to be the subject of any such external audit. These will be matched against objective evidence of the work done, for which you have claimed. Where impropriety is found, the relevant documents will have signatures of claimants, authorizers and approvers. You do not want to be the subject of such findings. Let us ensure that we manage the process professionally and with integrity.

Now that that has been said, let's look at how the WMS works. So, first of all, there are two ways in which overtime work can be done, namely scheduled and unscheduled. Scheduled overtime occurs when the duty to be carried out, relative to the number of persons to carry out the duty requires members to work beyond the 40 hours. In these instances, it is known before hand and so members are scheduled for more than 40 hours of work for a given week.

Unscheduled overtime, on the other hand, occurs when an unexpected situation arises that requires a member to go beyond their usual, scheduled hours of work for a given period of time. In these circumstances, the overtime must be authorized by a supervisor and approved by a member of the Command Team. This is necessary to ensure accountability and the member's wellbeing.

THE COMMISSIONER'S CORNER (CONT'D)

It must also be noted that overtime is calculated against a week's work and not for each day. What that means is that, working ten hours instead of the scheduled eight hours in a given day, does not represent two hours of overtime. Instead, it represents two hours of extra time. At the end of the week, the total time worked for that week is what is used to determine the number of overtime hours.

I know there have been some levels of discomfort and unease among some members with respect to overtime claimed, against overtime paid. I am also aware that, thanks to the team led by Mr. Devaughn Colquhoun, much of this has been addressed and the complaints have significantly subsided. In reviewing a number of the complaints of non- and sometimes part-payments, it was discovered that there was a bit of confusion as to what persons should be paid for. Members were expecting payments for hours scheduled, as opposed to hours worked. For each of the numerous complaints that we have explored, it was realized that the member based the expected payment on the Duty Roster that was submitted to Corporate and Special Services and not on the Timesheet that reflected the actual hours worked.

And so I believe it is useful to remind members, that before the period of duty, a Duty Roster is prepared to determine when each member is to perform duty. At the end of the period, the actual hours worked is captured from the Station Diary and the biometric readers and used to prepare the Timesheet. This Timesheet is what is used to calculate overtime hours.

Among some of the other nuances that were discovered that prevented the full payment to members, was the issue of incorrect and missing data. Again, this has been significantly improved and far less rejects are resulting from the attempts at ingesting the data into the system.

While we have made great strides in implementing an overtime system for such a huge workforce in very good time, as in any new system, we still have a few teething pain issues to address. Notwithstanding, I want to place on record my deepest appreciation for the team who has worked tirelessly for several months leading up to the roll out of the WMS and who has continued to provide exemplary support in seeing to its success. Instead of these unsung heroes being recognized for their selfless contribution, their effort was marred by very unfortunate and useless controversies that did nothing to help the members or the team.

My dear colleagues, be assured that I view your challenges as our challenges, and your success as our success. At the end of the day, we are the ones who are in this thing together, so let no one put asunder. Thank you for your patience and understanding throughout this rich experience, characterized by enthusiasm, anxiety, commitment, service above self and competence.

I wish for you and your families a peaceful and blessed weekend.

Until next week, walk good.

APPENDIX 'B' (CONT'D) TO FORCE ORDERS NO. 4020 DATED 2024-06-20

Sample Essay

Accepted by Harvard

Of all the characters that I've "met" through books and movies, two stand out as people that I most want to emulate. They are Attacus Finch from To Kill A Mockingbird and Dr. Archibald "Moonlight" Graham from Field of Dreams. They appeal to me because they embody what I strive to be. They are influential people in small towns who have a direct positive effect on those around them. I, too, plan to live in a small town after graduating from college, and that positive effect is something I must give in order to be satisfied with my life.

Both Mr. Finch and Dr. Graham are strong supporting characters in wonderful stories. They symbolize good, honesty, and wisdom. When the story of my town is written I want to symbolize those things. The base has been formed for me to live a productive, helpful life. As an Eagle Scout, I represent those things that Mr. Finch and Dr. Graham represent. In the child/adolescent world I am Mr. Finch and Dr. Graham, but soon I'll be entering the adult world, a world in which I'm not yet prepared to lead.

I'm quite sure that as teenagers Attacus Finch and Moonlight Graham often wondered what they could do to help others. They probably emulated someone who they had seen live a successful life. They saw someone like my grandfather, 40-year president of our hometown bank, enjoy a lifetime of leading, sharing, and giving. I have seen him spend his Christmas Eves taking gifts of food and joy to indigent families. Often when his bank could not justify a loan to someone in need, my grandfather made the loan from his own pocket. He is a real-life Moonlight Graham, a man who has shown me that characters like Dr. Graham and Mr. Finch do much much more than elicit tears and smiles from readers and movie watchers. Through him and others in my family I feel I have acquired the values and the burning desire to benefit others that will form the foundation for a great life. I also feel that that foundation is not enough. I do not yet have the sophistication, knowledge, and wisdom necessary to succeed as I want to in the adult world. I feel that Harvard, above all others, can guide me toward the life of greatness that will make me the Attacus Finch of my town.

ADMISSIONS COMMITTEE COMMENTS:

This essay is a great example of how to answer this question well. This applicant chose characters who demonstrated specific traits that reflect on his own personality. We believe that he is sincere about his choices because his reasons are personal (being from a small town, and so forth). He managed to tell us a good deal about himself, his values, and his goals while maintaining a strong focus throughout

JAMAICA CONSTABULARY FORCE
HUMAN RESOURCE DIVISION
KEEPING YOU IN THE KNOW

TEMPORARY ALLOWANCE
UNDER THE NEW COMPENSATION REVIEW

Did You Know?

That under the new compensation package which took effective on April 1, 2022, a provision termed Temporary Allowance was introduced.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

How is Temporary Allowance treated?

A Temporary Allowance is used if an individual's new net compensation falls below the guaranteed minimum increase by at least 20% over three years when transitioning from the old to the new compensation system. This increase is planned as 10% in year one, 5% in year two, and 5% in year three.

If an individual's pay is less than the guaranteed minimum increase in any of the three years, a Temporary Allowance is added to their new salary to ensure it meets the guaranteed minimum increase specified for that year under the conversion rules.

Is Temporary Allowance Pensionable?

Employees who are in receipt of a Non-taxable Temporary Allowance are to note that this allowance is pensionable.
